THE WORLD'S GREATEST NEWSPAPER

VOLUME LXXI.—NO. 111. WEDNESDAY, MAY 8, 1912.—SIXTEEN PAGES. PRICE ONE CENT IN CHICAGO AND SUBURBS. ELSEWHERE TWO CENTS.

RIOTING SUBSIDES; NEWSPAPER SALE NEARLY NORMAL

Evidence of Strike Slight; Street Corners in Loop Now Quiet.

OLD STEREOTYPERS GO BACK

International President Again Issues Orders for Men to Return to Work.

CLASH AT LA SALLE STATION

The Mailers' Union, which had been asked by the striking pressmen, drivers, and stereotypers to go on a sympathetic strike, last night by a vote of 102 to 6 declined to do so.

The conditions attending the labor situation in the offices of the Chicago newspapers reached a point yesterday that was nearer normal than since the end of last week.

The difficulties that had been encountered in the streets were fewer and less serious, and evidences of a strike were slight. Street corners in the loop where papers were sold were quiet. News stands were erected where they had formerly been and the sale of papers became normal.

The sale of newspapers was pushed into the outskirts of the city, and throughout the day the newspaper traffic was continued with few interruptions.

Owing to the capable manner in which the strike has been handled from the first by the police the spirit of violence seemed to have been ended.

Old Stereotypers Go Back.

James J. Freel, president of the International Stereotypers and Electrotypers' union, and Charles A. Sumner, vice president, issued an order to the members of the local union No. 4 of stereotypers, instructing them to return to work at once. Local No. 4 is the union which voted to strike in violation of contract with the Chicago daily newspapers, following the strike of the pressmen.

The order is signed by the two executive heads of the international union, representing the executive board, with full authority to act in the present strike. The order implies that since President Freel and Vice President Sumner arrived in Chicago they had learned that L. P. Straube, president of Union No. 4, had failed to acquaint the union members with the contents of two telegrams sent by President Freel from New York immediately before and after the strike vote was taken.

Sends Out Orders Again.

Finding that the two telegrams from the east were not made public by Straube, Mr. Freel sent out his orders again in the following:

Chicago, May 6, 1912.

To the Members of Chicago Stereotypers' Union No. 4:

On May 4 at 5:30 a. m. (2:30 Chicago time), I sent the following telegram to President L. P. Straube of your union:

"Brooklyn, N. Y., May 4, 1912.—L. P. Straube, President Chicago Stereotypers' Union No. 4, 2478 Osgood street, Chicago, Ill.:

"Informed No. 4 has struck Chicago newspaper offices. As this action is in violation of existing contracts underwritten by this union, I hereby order the members of Chicago Stereotypers' Union No. 4 to immediately return to work.

(Signed) "JAMES J. FREEL,
"President International Stereotypers and Electrotypers' Union."

Chicago, May 7, 1912.

We have learned since our arrival here (Chicago) that the members of Chicago Stereotypers' Union No. 4 have not been made acquainted with the contents of the above telegram. We therefore again order our members to return to work, and appeal to all to immediately comply.

JAMES J. FREEL, President.
CHARLES A. SUMNER,
Vice President International Stereotypers and Electrotypers' Union.

"Utterly Without Sanction."

"My orders explain themselves," said President Freel yesterday. "Mr. Sumner and I are here, representing the executive board of the International Union of Stereotypers and Electrotypers, with full authority to act. The stereotypers' strike is utterly without sanction of the international body. We can only do our best to get the men back to work. I hope they will return at once. I think the men will realize that they are in the wrong and that they will return to their jobs within a few hours."

Does Mr. Straube admit he kept your telegrams away from the members of his union before and after they voted to strike?" Mr. Freel was asked.

"He does not deny it."

Meeting at La Salle Street Station.

Striking newsboys tried to drive away two colored men who were selling papers in front of the La Salle street station shortly before 4 o'clock in the afternoon. About twenty white sympathizers surrounded the negroes and tried to destroy their papers.

The colored men fought back until Lieut. Kenny and a squad of policemen, who were nearby, hurried to the scene. The rioters fled on seeing the police, and only one man was arrested. He tried to resist and turned on Lieutenant with a flow of abusive language.

Christholm, 818 East Sixty-third street, a carpenter, was fined $10 and costs by Municipal Judge Maxwell for attempting to intimidate a newsboy who was selling papers at East Sixty-third street and South Park avenue.

WOMAN ASSAILS COUNTY JOB TEST

Dunning Seamstress Says She Framed Questions for Examination for Dressmaker.

THEN TOOK EXAMINATION

Woman Fails to Win, Protests, and the Merit Board Calls Her Upon the Carpet as Result.

BY OSCAR E. HEWITT.

Miss Julia Dwyer, seamstress at Dunning, was in trouble before the county civil service commission yesterday afternoon because she had told President Frederic Greer what she thought of him. Her opinion was uncomplimentary. She charged also:

"That the examination questions as prepared by the civil service commission were framed to suit the passing of Mrs. Elizabeth Regan."

Says She Formulated Questions.

The questions referred to were for a dressmaker's examination held on Jan. 6 last. Miss Dwyer asserts she formulated nine of the ten questions for the examination. Then she took it with the other applicants. She cannot see any good reason why she should not have had perfect answers for the nine questions, and therefore should have been placed at the head of the eligible list.

Instead, she was given fourth place, and the honor position was assigned to Mrs. Regan. The latter received the appointment. Miss Dwyer was angry.

"I went to the civil service commission and complained," she testified yesterday. "I didn't go to the newspapers or to the reform associations. Instead of giving satisfaction, Mr. Greer pointed his finger at me and said I had done something horribly illegal. Perhaps I have, but the civil service commission has done something more horribly illegal."

Called Greer "Meanest Man."

"Didn't you tell Mr. Greer he was the meanest man outside of the penitentiary and that he would get what Ballard Dunn got?" asked Commissioner Taige of the woman.

"Something like that,' she replied, "but I could not get any satisfaction."

"Then you saw me and I told you you should proceed in some other way?" asked the commissioner.

"Yes, you were painfully affable," replied Miss Dwyer. "Painfully affable."

The dignity of the hearing was upset by Mr. Taige laughing. President Hartsen of the county board, in an undertone, remarked that the last reply of the defendant should be suppressed for the benefit of Mr. Taige.

The hearing was conducted by Taige and Pichter, Mr. Greer being out of the room.

Miss Dwyer Tells Own Story.

According to Miss Dwyer, she filed her application to take the examination two or three weeks before the test was held. Then, a day or two before the examination, she was instructed by Henry Lynch, former superintendent of Dunning, to prepare questions for the examination, which she proceeded to do. One of the women attending physicians of Dunning was asked by Miss Dwyer to look over the questions in order to see that they were plain.

In doing that the physician and Miss Dwyer discussed changing certain questions, which was done. The morning of the examination, Miss Dwyer says, she took the questions and gave them to one of the examiners of the commission. This man she identified yesterday and he in turn said that he had seen her while he was an elevator operator of the old county building.

The examiner said that he did not recognize Miss Dwyer in the room with the others who took the examination.

Recognized Her Own Questions.

It appears Miss Dwyer recognized her own questions in the test. She testified that not even the wording had been changed, except in one question. This was corroborated by the Dunning physician who had helped prepare the questions.

It also was brought out in the hearing that the civil service commission had obtained questions used by the board of education in examinations of teachers for sewing. None of these was identified as having been used in the county test.

It was denied by employes of the merit board that they knew in advance of the examination that Miss Dwyer had prepared the questions and also had taken the test.

On a former hearing of the facts, on April 23, Miss Dwyer was ordered discharged by the civil service commission. She pleaded for a hearing, that she might be represented by an attorney. One was present yesterday. The commission took the matter under advisement and will give a decision later.

U. S. JUDGE FINES RAILWAYS $40,000 FOR REBATING PLOT

Big Four, Michigan Central, and Lake Shore Pay Maximum Penalty Under Law.

PLEAD GUILTY TO CRIME

Admit They Advertised Lavishly in Favored Theatrical Firms' Programs.

SHOWMEN FACE LIKE CHARGES

Three of the New York Central lines, indicted by the federal grand jury for conspiracy to grant rebates, pleaded guilty yesterday and paid aggregate fines of $40,000.

The only concession made by the government was the nonsuiting of the cases against the assistant traffic managers of two of the roads named in the indictment. The fine, $10,000 on each of the four counts, is the maximum under the anti-rebating statute.

Here Are Roads and Fines.

The railroads and amounts of their fines:

Lake Shore	$10,000
Michigan Central	10,000
Big Four	20,000

The Big Four (Cleveland, Cincinnati, Chicago and St. Louis), was indicted on two of the counts. One count was specified in the charges against the Michigan Central and the Lake Shore.

Other Individuals Accused.

In addition to William H. Underwood and Harry J. Rhein, officials of the Michigan Central and the Big Four, the indictments contain charges against Rudolph K. Hynicka of Cincinnati, secretary of the Columbia Amusement company; James E. Fennessey of New York, secretary of the Empire Circuit company; Hurtig & Seamon and Fred Irwin, theatrical men. The plea of the railroads will, of course, be used by the government in the prosecution of the cases against them.

The railroads pleaded guilty without reservation to the charge that there was a conspiracy to grant rebates to theatrical companies using their lines. The rebate took the form of lavish advertisements in theater programs, and by reason of the evasion the conspiracy charge was preferred, instead of a direct charge of rebating.

Harold R. Smith of the New York Central lines' counsel came to District Attorney Wilkerson's office early in the afternoon and conferred for some time with Mr. Wilkerson, with S. H. Smith of the interstate commerce commission, and with Harry Parkin, assistant United States district attorney, in charge of the rebate cases.

Railroads Fail to Gain Compromise.

The railroad attorney tried for some time to have the government attorneys agree to a fine somewhat below the maximum, but he failed, and offered no objection when he appeared before District Judge Carpenter a little later.

"Under the circumstances I think the maximum fine should be imposed," said Judge Carpenter briefly.

No offer of compromise has been made by Hynicka or his associates.

There are a number of other rebating cases under investigation by the government through the interstate commerce commission agents. The victory in the conspiracy charge is believed to be a valuable asset for future prosecutions under the law.

ROBBER WITH BASEBALL BAT BREAKS POLICEMAN'S ARM.

Holdup Men Drag Peddler from Wagon in Daylight and Then Battle to Resist Arrest.

Policeman Frank Knack of the Rawson street station was beaten and his right arm broken above the wrist by two men, one of whom attacked him with a baseball bat when he attempted to arrest them yesterday afternoon as they were robbing Samuel Cohn, a peddler.

Cohn, who lives at 1639 West North avenue, was dragged from his wagon while at Luce and Blackhawk streets, and after being beaten by John Geresik, 1450 Elston avenue, one of the robbers, his purse containing $20 was taken by Frank Blaha, 18 years old, 1411 Elston avenue.

Policeman Knack ran to the aid of Cohn and Blaha struck him with the butt end of his revolver while Geresik attacked him with the bat.

After breaking the patrolman's arm the robbers fled, but Blaha was captured a few minutes later by Patrolman Freeman. Geresik escaped.

Knack was taken to St. Elizabeth's hospital.

CHURCH WINS COURT FIGHT FOR MRS. EDDY'S MILLIONS.

Son of Christian Science Founder Gets Setback in Effort to Break Provision of Will.

Concord, N. H., May 7.—The clause of the will of Mrs. Mary Baker G. Eddy, founder of the Christian Science church, bequeathing the residue of her estate, valued at about $2,000,000, to the First Church of Christ, Scientist, of Boston, creates a "valid trust" in the opinion of the Supreme court of New Hampshire, announced today.

The court holds that "the residuary clause is not a gift to the church, but a gift for religious purposes, sustainable as a charitable trust."

The court's decision was given in the bill in equity brought by George W. Glover of Lord & D., Mrs. Eddy's son,

CO-ED 'KIDNAPED' FROM QUARANTINE

Northwestern Diphtheria Case Makes Escape with Aid of Automobile.

FATHER COMES TO RESCUE

A dozen co-eds of Northwestern university almost chortled yesterday over the escape of a schoolmate from quarantine. Having grown tired of the sweets smuggled to them through the windows of Chapin hall the captives threatened also to challenge the health authorities by a dash for freedom.

Miss Josephine Coplin, the "case" of diphtheria, whose ailment had caused their imprisonment, had flown successfully from St. Francis hospital. Their plight was less severe than hers. They could emulate her example and go to their homes for a vacation.

Big Black Auto Plays a Part.

Miss Coplin was the willing victim of a kidnaping in which a man student with a bundle of her garments and a big black automobile containing her father played an important part. The young woman had been in the hospital since April 1 and was allowed some freedom about the grounds, so that opportunities for flight offered.

The young man in the case, said to be a football player, was seen loitering around the fence that bounds the St. Francis grounds. When first seen he carried some sort of a bundle. When he strolled away his hands were empty.

It was the hour for visitors and when a closely veiled young woman a few minutes later walked past a nurse at the door no questions were asked.

Speeds to Home in Hebron, Ind.

As the young woman jumped into the automobile and the arms of a stout gentleman the veil was thrown back and it was seen she was Miss Coplin. The machine sped southward, and by the time the hospital employes assured themselves their patient had taken French leave she was on the road to Hebron, Ind., the home of her parents.

Dr. Victor F. Balderston, Evanston's health commissioner, was notified of the case. He considered it at length, and concluded the only action he could take was to notify the officials of the Indiana town that Miss Coplin had broken quarantine. This he did, with a suggestion that the authorities there could take what steps they thought necessary.

Mrs. Curt von Knoblesdorf Asks Divorce—Asserts He Spent Patrimony on Wine Suppers.

A desire to be known as a gentleman of leisure was charged against Curt von Knoblesdorf in a bill for separate maintenance filed against him yesterday by Mrs. Martha von Knoblesdorf. She asserts he spent the income sent him from Germany on supper parties and similarly gentlemanly functions while she earned the necessities of life for both by her voice. In her petition Mrs. von Knoblesdorf recited that she lived on this basis with her husband for nearly seven years before she was compelled to leave him. She said he recently received 90,000 marks, from which no benefit came to her.

WINS $450 UPON $3 CLOCK.

Woman Sues Storage Firm After Seeing Her Property Sold and Gains Verdict.

A mantel clock which brought $3 in an auction sale gave Mrs. J. L. Shillady $450 in Municipal Judge Moran's court yesterday. Mrs. Shillady sent all her goods to the W. C. Reebie & Bros. warehouse some time ago, and on her return from the east was told the property had been destroyed by fire. It was uninsured. Later she attended one of the firm's weekly auction sales and saw a friend buy a clock that looked like hers for $3. She brought suit. Although she did not controvert the firm's testimony that the rest of her goods had been burned, the jury returned a $450 verdict. Motions were made for a new trial.

CHICAGO PHYSICIAN SAILS TO WIN PECULIAR WAGER.

Mikkelson Takes Steerage to Begin Course in Vienna—Must Earn Way Without Begging or Borrowing.

New York, May 7.—[Special.]—With $60 in his pocket after paying fare in the steerage of the Kaiser Wilhelm II., Dr. Jörge Mikkelsen of the Norwegian Lutheran Deaconess' hospital of Chicago sailed from Hoboken this morning.

He is to be gone until December, and during that time he must neither beg, borrow, nor steal.

In the meantime he must visit Copenhagen, take a lecture course at a medical institute at Vienna, obtain a certificate saying that he did so and passed the examination, and visit Berlin, Paris, London, and New York.

He may earn money as he goes, but he must keep a rigorous account of every 5 cents earned and expended.

If he fulfills the conditions and gets back to Chicago without having begged, borrowed, or stolen or taken charity, all that he spends will have to be paid over again by two fellow physicians and each will pay him $100 besides.

Mrs. Sorzen Mikkelsen, 2512 Logan boulevard, mother of Dr. Mikkelsen, said last night that she had heard nothing of her son's peculiar wager with his professional brothers here. She said her son left Chicago well supplied with money and that she believed he would hardly want to deprive himself of many pleasures of travel abroad just to win a small freak wager.

SAY THEY ASKED 'MR. FOSTER,' WITH DISASTROUS RESULT.

Chicagoans Who Got Wrong Information on Tour in Cuba Get Judgment in Municipal Court.

"Ask Mr. Foster," the signs read in Havana, Cuba.

"Mr. Foster" was asked, but he did not give the right answer, and for that reason a judgment was given against the company for $324 by Municipal Judge Turnbaugh yesterday.

Oscar B. McGlasson, 456 Barry avenue, treasurer of the McNeil & Higgins company, and Charles H. Hermann, 421 Barry avenue, secretary of Chapin & Gore, were suing the Foster & Reynolds company, a touring agency, who have a Chicago office at 98 East Congress street.

The plaintiffs and their wives were in Havana on a pleasure trip in February, 1910. The town, they say, was plastered with "Ask Mr. Foster" signs. At the Foster office they were told the steamship Amanda would sail from Santiago de Cuba the following Saturday.

The Chicagoans wanted to go to Kingston, Jamaica, and bought tickets from "Mr. Foster."

When they arrived in Santiago the party learned that there was a mistake in the information given them in regard to the sailing schedule. They were obliged to make a return journey across Cuba and undergo privations.

Lack of Craft to Carry Imperiled Persons Proves a Handicap in Saving Lives and Bringing Supplies.

New Orleans, La., May 7.—The work of rescuing marooned persons in isolated districts progressed more rapidly today and boats coming into concentration camps are usually loaded with women and children.

There is a scarcity of every kind of navigable craft, and everything that can be steered and carry passengers and supplies for even a short distance has been pressed into service. Hundreds of primitive flat boats that can be towed by motor boats are being constructed.

Work on the levees has practically been abandoned here. In the vicinity of the American Sugar refinery the hot sun today baked the repair work done during the last three days and the engineers are once more cheerful, many of them believing that the worst has passed.

'KIMMEL' ASSERTS OPERATION LIFTED CLOUD ON MEMORY

Man of Mystery Recovers Enough to Tell Strange Story of Dual Life.

"LIKE A JEKYLL AND HYDE"

Still Insists on Identity, but Shows Evasiveness When Asked as to Details.

SAYS RECOLLECTIONS ARE GROWING

The man of mystery who insists he is George A. Kimmel of Niles, Mich., yesterday sat in a wheel chair at the Robert Burns hospital and spoke wistfully of the fourteen lost years of his life. They were the years which extended from the time the ex-convict's skull was fractured in 1898 until a week ago, when he underwent a cranial operation for the removal of bone pressure which clouded his memory. They were years of semi-darkness, vague, and dreamlike, according to his story.

The interview yesterday was the first time "Kimmel" has spoken at length since the operation. He asserted that surgery has made his brain normal. He said he was slowly recalling the forgotten incidents of his early life. His inability to remember them in the past has been a potent factor in his failure to convince Kimmel's mother, sister, and a host of friends that he is not an impostor.

Refers to Jekyll and Hyde.

"Kimmel" smoked a cigar as he talked. The only indication of the severe operation was the bandage around his head.

"Doubtless you are familiar with the story of 'Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde,'" he began. "That story truthfully illustrates my experience. I have now come into my real self. My better nature has asserted itself."

"Then you feel the blow upon your head benumbed your moral as well as your physical senses?"

"I certainly do."

"What has the period between the time you were hurt and the present seemed like?"

"They have been fourteen wasted years," he replied. "They have been filled with sorrow and anguish."

Sees Future Without Hope.

"How old are you now?" was asked.

"Forty-three," replied "Kimmel." "There isn't much chance for a man my age nowadays."

"Kimmel" said he remembered every detail of the slugging. He asserted he now knows the names of the three men who attacked him. He admitted it happened on a dark night, but explained that he recognized the voices of the trio, who talked as they beat him. He grew indignant when questioned as to details.

"I left Arkansas City in July, 1898, for Topeka. I carried $19,000 worth of school bonds of Creswell township. The township had defaulted on the bonds. The state had guaranteed them, and I went to the state treasurer to get the money. I had been instructed to take the money with me. This was poor business, and so I told the treasurer to send us a draft."

Evasive as to Details.

"Kimmel" was interrupted and an inquiry was made as to who "instructed" him. The question irritated him and he said he would be "a fool to tell." There were other times when he was evasive. He said such information would injure his case. Kimmel's mother and sister are now suing the New York Life Insurance company for $20,000 insurance on his life. At the trial in February the jury disagreed. The retrial is set for this month.

"I left Topeka," continued the claimant, "and went to Wyandotte. There I met a man who was one of the three who slugged me. He asked me if I had the money and I said no. He found out I had $520 on deposit in the American National bank at Kansas City, where I was going. He telephoned the bank to send the money to the Midland hotel.

"When I arrived at the hotel the girl cashier told me she had money for me. I never was more surprised in my life. As long as it was there I decided to take it. In putting the money in my pocket I dropped 20 or 25 cents and the girl picked it up for me. That is how clear my recollection now is.

"Kimmel" Says He Was Drugged.

"The man I met in Wyandotte was at the hotel with me. There were two others there. They were the ones who put me out of business. It would hurt my case to tell their names now. I was drugged. Then I was walking down Sixteenth street in St. Louis when these three jumped on me."

"Kimmel" would not explain what happened from the time he left Kansas City until he arrived in St. Louis.

He also was asked if he remembered what he did to receive the five year sentence to the prison at Auburn, N. Y. The inquiry made him angry and he answered one question with another.

"Kimmel" was discharged from the penitentiary as Andrew J. White.

"Why do you keep referring to me as A. J. White?" he asked. "We produced White at the trial at St. Louis."

But the man would not explain why he had used the name of White.

Asked if he remembered much of his life previous to the slugging, "Kimmel" said he was recalling more and more each day.

"I remember returning to Niles in 1904, to work in the national bank there," he said. "I took the place of George Howard, who was supposed to have been drowned in Barron lake."

"Kimmel" seemed to be getting a trifle confused and Dr. Loren Wilder put an end to the interview. The surgeon said it would be five or six weeks before the patient's recovery is complete.

WASHINGTON VOTE FAVORS COLONEL

Roosevelt Probably Will Get Fourteen Delegates from Coast State.

T. R. WINS IN MARYLAND.

Tacoma, Wash., May 7.—Returns, with six cities and thirty-three county precincts still to be heard from in yesterday's primaries, give Roosevelt 220 5-6, Taft 156 1-6.

There will be 443 delegates in the state convention, with 222 necessary to control.

In Tacoma Roosevelt carried six wards out of eight.

Both the Taft and Roosevelt leaders claim they will control the convention, but the figures thus far received are sufficient to give the control to Roosevelt forces.

Washington will send fourteen delegates to the national convention.

Roosevelt Controls Maryland.

Baltimore, Md., May 7.—The closeness of the struggle between President Taft and Theodore Roosevelt for control of Maryland's sixteen votes in the national convention was emphasized today when complete returns from yesterday's primaries showed the result depended upon one county, which on the face of the returns gave Roosevelt a majority of eighty votes.

Putting this county, Howard, in the Roosevelt column gave him sixty-six delegates to the state convention, just one more than a majority. The three Howard county delegates counted for Taft would give him the primary victory by the same margin.

Complete unofficial returns received today by the state Roosevelt committee and all the Baltimore newspapers agreed in giving Col. Roosevelt a majority in Howard county of eighty odd votes, but Taft leaders tonight were unwilling to concede that their opponents had won.

"It would be improper for me to concede anything at this time when Maryland's sixteen votes to the national convention hang on less than 100 votes," said John B. Hanne, chairman of the Republican state central committee, and leader of the Taft forces.

Unique Possibility Develops.

Another feature of the day was the development of the possibility that the individual delegates elected to the state convention would include a majority of Taft men, even though their instructions by the county preference vote might bind them to vote for a Roosevelt delegation to the national convention.

The Taft leaders made this claim. It was pointed out that President Taft's friends might control the convention, force the adoption of a conservative platform, and send a delegation to Chicago which would be ready to abandon Roosevelt as soon as they considered they had fulfilled their legal duties by voting for him on the first ballot. None of the leaders, however, made such prophecies.

Roosevelt Leads in Texas.

Dallas, Tex., May 7.—Returns from fifty-nine counties where Republican county conventions were held show the following result:

Roosevelt	22	Split delegations or contests	6
Taft	17

POLICEMAN FIRST HEAT VICTIM.

George Brown, Driver at Chicago Avenue Station, Stricken While in Barn at Work.

What is believed to be the first heat prostration this year was reported yesterday. George Brown, 32 years old, 1468 West Erie street, a wagon driver at the Chicago avenue police station, was overcome by heat in the barn in the rear of the station. He was taken to St. Elizabeth's hospital.

ASKS LAW TO END SLAVERY OF GIRLS

Federal Investigator Declares Government Is Able to End Traffic.

IN NEED OF MORE FUNDS.

Official Also Would Permit Victims to Testify Against Mock Husbands.

Louisville, Ky., May 7.—[Special.]—Broader legislation and heavier appropriations for the suppression of the traffic in women in this country were demanded here today by Stanley W. Finch, chief of the bureau of investigation of the federal department of justice. Present funds, he said, were insufficient to investigate and prosecute cases as vigorously as could be done.

New legislation he recommends would be in these directions:

To bring about closer supervision of mail and telegraphic communications, inter and intra state.

To enable women in "white slave" cases to testify against their husbands. This testimony is frequently essential to the establishment of the government's case.

To allow issuance of search warrants on sufficient evidence, and arrest without warrants.

All this, he said, could be brought about by a fuller public realization of the present horrors of the traffic in women. He estimated the number of public prostitutes in the country at 250,000.

In Address to Purity League.

Chief Finch's address was given before the congress held under the auspices of the World's Purity federation, an international organization aiming at the ending of the traffic in women. B. S. Steadwell of La Crosse, Wis., is president, Judge Ben B. Lindsey of Denver one of the vice presidents. On the advisory board are the Rev. John Balcom Shaw, Prof. Newton Riddell, and Clifford G. Roe of Chicago, Dr. Madison C. Peters, Anthony Comstock, Eva Booth of New York, Congressman Richmond P. Hobson, and others active in the work. Dr. Winfield Scott Hall of Chicago is chairman of the committee on medical work, and the Rev. Ernest Bell, superintendent of the Midnight mission, of the committee on "white slave traffic."

Mr. Finch, as head of the agency which has done most of the actual investigation work, leading to 219 indictments in the nine months ended March 31, followed by only nine acquittals, was the principal speaker.

Mock Marriage a Decoy.

The theater, the motion picture show, the dance hall, the café, and the skating rink, while in themselves often useful and beneficial for education, entertainment, and exercise, he said, become instruments for the work of the men and women engaged in the "business." A mock marriage or a real marriage, he said, was frequently the agency employed. For this reason he urged legislation allowing women complainants to testify against their husbands.

Finds Defect in U. S. Slave Law.

"It will perhaps be somewhat surprising to learn that there is no federal law which makes it a crime for one person to hold another in slavery or involuntary servitude, unless such person has been, in the first instance, kidnaped or carried away or bought or sold."

PASSES LIE OVER MARYLAND

Dixon, Roosevelt Manager, Resents Charge of Taft Men.

USE OF MONEY IS ALLEGED.

Rival Statements Issued Regarding the Outcome of Primary.

Washington, D. C., May 7.—The Taft and Roosevelt national headquarters clashed today over the Maryland primary result. The word "lie" was used by Senator Dixon, head of the Roosevelt committee. The Taft headquarters put out a statement on the Maryland results as follows:

"More than half of Mr. Roosevelt's entire delegate vote came from the city and county of Baltimore, where it is stated the Roosevelt managers placed $10,000 among their workers at an early hour yesterday.

"In Prince George county, which definitely decided the contest so far as present returns indicate, Roosevelt money in large amounts was poured into the county. Large rolls of small bills, accompanied by checks to be used if needed, were sent out from Washington on Sunday, a well known leader in the district having voluntarily exhibited such a 'roll' in Washington Sunday afternoon."

This statement was delivered to the Roosevelt headquarters about noon. Here is Senator Dixon's answer:

"Every one of these statements is a deliberate, willful lie. Every man connected with their circulation is a deliberate, wilful liar. These lies are circulated for the only purpose possible for which liars always lie."

President Taft's managers today stated that the president is entitled to and will receive the votes of four of the delegates from Maryland. The presidential primary gave Col. Roosevelt apparent control of the state convention which is to select Maryland's entire delegation of sixteen to Chicago, and reports from Maryland have indicated that the delegation would be solid for Roosevelt.

PENSION BILL IS APPROVED.

Senate Accepts Joint Report Which Will Add $22,000,000 Annually to Appropriation.

Washington, D. C., May 7.—The report of the conferees of the two houses of congress on the general pension bill was agreed to by the senate today. The bill will cause an average increase of appropriations of $22,000,000 a year for the next five years. The greatest increase will occur next year, when it will reach $35,000,000.

POLITICAL NOTES BY WIRE.

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Oscar W. Underwood of Alabama, majority leader of the house and candidate for the Democratic presidential nomination, declared his presidential candidacy was not in the interst of Gov. Harmon nor of any other candidate than himself. This was in reply to a statement of William J. Bryan.

MADISON, Wis.—Gov. McGovern signed the Stern bill providing for nonpartisan nominations and elections of city officials in all Wisconsin municipalities under the primary election law.

LEROY, Minn.—Speaker Charles A. Ingram of the Wisconsin legislature opened the campaign for La Follette delegates here.

INDEPENDENCE, Kas.—Supporters of Col. Theodore Roosevelt's candidacy for the presidency will control the Republican state convention which meets here tomorrow to name four delegates at large to the national convention. Roosevelt delegates will number at least 750 out of a total of 806.

NASHVILLE, Tenn.—Delegates to the Democratic state convention of May 15 were selected in many counties. The indications are Tennessee's delegation of twelve will be split and will go uninstructed.

Sale of seats for Elsie Janis in "The Slim Princess" opens tomorrow morning.—Adv.

GUFFEY GRIP LOST IN PENNSYLVANIA

"Reorganizers" Repudiate the "Boss" and Control Democratic Convention.

INDORSE GOV. WILSON.

"Regulars" Join in Naming and Instructing Delegates for the New Jersey Executive.

Harrisburg, Pa., May 7.—The faction in the Democratic party in Pennsylvania known as "Reorganizers" was victorious in the state convention here today. This means the faction which had opposed the leadership of J. M. Guffey is now in control.

Both the "regulars" and "reorganizers" indorsed Gov. Woodrow Wilson of New Jersey for the presidential nomination, and the convention named Wilson delegates, and so instructed them.

Platform Ignores Recall.

The platform adopted includes indorsement of the initiative and referendum, but ignores the recall of judges or judicial decisions. It deplores "destruction of representative government through control of state and national legislation by agents of special interests."

It says loose and dishonest constitutional interpretation has turned fundamental laws against proper regulation of corporate wealth and that protective tariff has swollen the fortunes of a few.

"Reorganizers" Name Slate.

The "reorganizers" named the following slate:

Congressman at large—George R. Shaw, Westmoreland; Joseph Howley, Allegheny; George R. McLean, Luzerne, and E. E. Greenawalt, Lancaster.

Delegates at large—A. Mitchell Palmer, Monroe; Vance C. McCormick, Dauphin; L. W. Reiff, Berks; Roland S. Morris, Philadelphia; George W. Guthrie, Allegheny; Charles S. Duncan, Adams; W. W. Bailey, Cambridge; E. J. Lynell, Lackawanna; Charles R. Kurtz, Center; John A. Thornton, Philadelphia; Henry H. Wilson, Beaver, and Fred C. Kirkendall, Luzerne.

SOUTH CAROLINA FOR WILSON.

Columbia, S. C., May 7.—Reports from forty-one of the forty-four counties in the state show that in the county conventions Gov. Woodrow Wilson was indorsed as the Democratic candidate for president in five, while five others instructed their delegates to vote for him at the state convention to be held May 16.

This gives Wilson a nucleus of thirty-eight votes in the state convention, while those counties which indorsed him are expected to add forty-eight.

WASHINGTON TO CHAMP CLARK.

Walla Walla, Wash., May 7.—The state Democratic convention voted this afternoon to indorse Champ Clark as its candidate for president. The vote stood: Clark, 455; Wilson, 106; Bryan, 135½; Harmon, 1½. An attempt was made to stampede the convention for Bryan, but it was unsuccessful.

CLOSE RACE IN MISSISSIPPI.

Jackson, Miss., May 7.—Early scattering returns from the Democratic presidential preference primaries held today throughout Mississippi indicate a close contest between Oscar W. Underwood and Woodrow Wilson. Senator John Sharp Williams, Senator-elect James K. Vardaman, Gov. Earl Brewer, and C. H. Alexander were elected delegates at large without opposition. Williams and Alexander are supporters of Gov. Wilson, while Vardaman and Brewer espouse the cause of Underwood.

GOOD TASTE WITH ECONOMY

Every home should have hangings and furnishings which distinguish it from every other home and bespeak the taste and education of the family. No two individuals are the same—no two families have the same tastes and characteristics.

In the past, this has been partly due to lack of artistic feeling, knowledge of color and design, to a failure to realize that daily surroundings have a proper educational value; but in a greater degree to a lack of inexpensive materials wide enough in color range, tints and patterns to express aright the individual self.

COLONIAL DRAPERY FABRICS enable every home-maker to express personal taste and bestow upon every room the distinction of its occupants, making it more suitable and beautiful for daily living.

An inspection of our displays will reveal many ways and places in which COLONIAL DRAPERY FABRICS may be used in giving an artistic, comfortable atmosphere to the home.

COLONIAL DRAPERY FABRICS—made exclusively by Marshall Field & Company—are being featured in extensive special displays this month.

SHOOTS HIS WIFE; WOUNDS HIMSELF

Husband, Ejected at Boarding House, Waits Till Mrs. Allen Cole Returns.

SHE THE BREADWINNER.

Clerk Worried Over Threats of His Mate to Leave Him.

Waiting for her on their doorstep, Allen Cole, a young clerk, shot his wife last night and then fired a bullet into his own brain. That they both did not die immediately, physicians declared, was because the revolver was of the small 22 caliber variety.

Mrs. Cole was shot in the left ear, but was able to run into a nearby office building. Her husband pursued her and at the door of the building turned his weapon against himself. Both were taken to the Rhodes avenue hospital, where it was said Cole probably will die, while his wife may recover.

The only motive found for the double shooting was that Cole dreaded a threatened separation from his wife. It was said he had been despondent because of his failure to find a satisfactorily paying position.

Wife Threatened to Leave.

His wife was working and she threatened, according to acquaintances, to leave him unless he added a larger share to the family purse.

For four weeks they had been boarding at the residence of F. W. Griffin, 3132 Rhodes avenue. When they came there they were both cheerful. Cole is 28 years old and his wife a year younger, according to what they told Mr. and Mrs. Griffen. With them was their one child, Donald, a boy 3 years old.

The first sign of discontent noticed was that Cole had been drinking heavily when he returned home one night. He was employed as a bookkeeper at the stockyards and insisted he was going to do something desperate unless he obtained a better position so his wife could leave her place behind the counter of a department store.

Lays in Wait for Wife.

His drinking continued in spite of his wife's protests and she appealed to Mr. Griffen to argue and plead with him. Instead of growing better Cole became worse, until Griffen, with Mrs. Cole's approval, ordered him out of the house. Monday evening he returned and created such a disturbance that he was ejected.

Shortly before the time that Mrs. Cole was due to return from work yesterday he appeared in Rhodes avenue. He walked unsteadily up and down the sidewalk waiting for her. When she appeared he went to the steps of the Griffen residence and there stopped her as she attempted to pass him. He was heard to shout something at her. She answered and he fired.

Half stunned by the shot, Mrs. Cole fell to the ground, and while he hesitated she gained her feet and fled. She ran to 436 East Thirty-first street, where she was aided into the office of Dr. Forest R. Butterfield. Staggering into the hallway Cole saw that she had found shelter, and, placing his revolver against his right temple, he fired the second shot.

WHITE WIFE OF CHINESE HELD AS PRISONER, SHE SAYS.

Mrs. Ethel Chung Rescued from "Prison" in Mother's House by Mrs. Marian Brockington.

James Shoue Chung, said to be the first Chinaman ever ordered to make payments to his wife, was arraigned again yesterday in the Court of Domestic Relations on a charge of not turning over to his wife a fair amount of his earnings. Chung is married to a white girl—Ethel, daughter of Mrs. Bessie Lashbrook.

The first order was entered last August. The case again came to the attention of the authorities when a letter was received by Mrs. Marian Brockington, a settlement worker.

The letter read:

Dear Mrs. Brockington: I need your help. I have been held prisoner in my mother's house for three days. My mother has no respect for me or my children. I think she keeps a bad place. They won't let me out. I can't trust James, so I feel bad about it.

I told them if they didn't let me out I would cry for help. She said she would call the police and tell them I was crazy. I can't trust anyobdy—him or her.

The letter is dated March 13, and the address given is 382 East Twenty-fifth street. Both Mrs. Lashbrook and Chung are living there.

Mrs. Brockington went to the place escorted by the police, and removed Mrs. Chung. She is now in the Beulah home. She has two babies, one 13 months old, and the other 6 weeks old.

The case was continued to Saturday by Judge Goodnow to allow other witnesses to be brought in. Chung works in a restaurant at 30 West Madison street.

STATE SENATE LACKS QUORUM.

Members Not Expected to Reach Springfield Until Tomorrow—See Little Business in House.

Springfield, Ill., May 7.—[Special.]—No quorum is likely to appear in the senate tomorrow, and it is improbable that there will be any real business transacted in the house. This was made evident tonight with the announcement from Lieut. Gov. Oglesby that no effort is to be made to bring in the senators until Thursday morning.

Difficulty is at hand in getting a quorum in the house judiciary committee to consider the Illinois Cahtral-south park lake front bill, and none seems to be wanted by the element which is unfriendly to the bills being handled by Representative Morton D. Hull and representatives of the Hyde Park districts.

ARREST TWO IN MURDER CASE.

Alleged Enemies of Dead Man Arrested on "Tip" by the Widow, Mrs. Paul Gence.

Ferdinando Ventavegna, 2436 South La Salle street, and Ignatz Borva, 268 West Twenty-third street, were taken into custody yesterday in connection with the murder of Paul Gence, 2544 Lowe avenue. The body, with twenty knife wounds in it, was found Sunday night on the tracks of the Illinois Central railroad at East Fifteenth street. The arrest followed information given by Mrs. Gence, who said her husband was stabbed two months ago by Borva in a quarrel. Ventavegna was with Borva at the time.

BRIDE WILL LIVE IN PARIS

Friends Tell Plans of Mrs. Niels Gron, Who Was Mrs. Carl Stone.

WAS MARRIED IN LONDON.

Bridegroom Well Known as the Developer of "Potentia."

Mrs. Carl Stone of Chicago and Niels L. G. Gron of Denmark, who were married yesterday in the Danish church in London, will make their home in Paris, according to Mrs. Gron's friends in Chicago.

Mr. Gron has a city house in London and a country place in Denmark by the sea, but neither of these will be permanently inhabited by the new household. Instead, Mrs. Gron has arranged that her two daughters, Elizabeth and Marie Louise, who at present are studying music in Berlin, will live with her in Paris in the future, as will her son, who is at school at Vevey, Switzerland.

Gron Well Known in Chicago.

Mr. Gron is well known in Chicago and elsewhere in America. He is an intimate friend of Mr. and Mrs. Robert S. Hots of 1867 North State street, with whom he has stayed during former visits. He is known particularly as the developer of "Potentia," a system of publicity to promote equitable dealings in international intercourse.

The bridegroom was born in Copenhagen, but completed his education at Harvard university, where he was graduated. He afterward became a social lion in Boston and acquired American citizenship while in Massachusetts. In the presidential campaign of 1896 he gave efficient service in organization work and addresses to the Scandinavian voters of the northwest.

In this connection the records of congress still show the thanks extended him by Mark A. Hanna, chairman of the Republican national committee.

Made Record in Journalism.

Since then Mr. Gron kept constantly in touch with journalistic work in the United States, an experience that enabled him in 1900 to expose an alleged plan of the Standard Oil company to buy the Danish West Indies, with ramifications among congressmen and involving much bribery.

STRIKEBREAKERS TOSS FREIGHT

Go to Work in All Yards and Depots Affected by Clerks' and Handlers' Walkouts.

Strikebreakers went to work yesterday in all yards and depots affected by the strike of the checking clerks and freight handlers. Many were recruited in the east. Representatives of various railroads said local freight traffic was normal again. The union disregarded the ultimatum of the railroads that unless the strikers returned to work today they would be locked out. Patrick Cleary, a freight handler, tried to kill himself by cutting his throat during the day at 4742 Princeton avenue. He was despondent because thrown out of a job by the strike.

DEATH TAKES AUTO VICTIM.

F. E. Rowe Succumbs in Hospital—Accident Had Been Concealed from Police.

F. E. Rowe, 705 South Ashland avenue, an employe of the Kimball Piano company, died at St. Luke's hospital yesterday of injuries incurred Saturday night when he was knocked down by an automobile owned by Thornton A. Herr of Oak Park. The accident happened at South Wabash avenue and East Jackson boulevard. Rowe, who was 64 years old, was placed in the auto and hurried to the hospital without a report to the police.

Anchor Line Steamer Has Supply of Wet Goods, but All Passengers Are Abstainers.

New York, May 7.—Records of all kinds have been claimed by steamships coming into port, but none more strange than the boast of the Columbia, of the Anchor line, which has just completed a trip from Glasgow without having sold a drink during the entire voyage. There was plenty to drink on board, but all the passengers were total abstainers.

Judge Slusser Gives G. H. Mead Until May 10 to Settle.

MAY FACE CONTEMPT SUIT.

Fight Over Property Owned in Common Brings Case in Court.

A settlement of the trouble between Mr. and Mrs. George H. Mead, a hearing in which occurred before Judge Slusser yesterday, was postponed until May 18, provided Mr. Mead pays his wife $40 before May 10. If this amount is not paid at that time Mead will be cited for alleged contempt of court.

Mead had his wife summoned for disobeying an injunction, which forbade her disposing of personal property which he says is owned in common by them, until a court decides that it shall become the individual property of one of the disputants. The property in question is valued at $3,000 and consists of some Persian rugs and a silver drinking set.

Mrs. Mead, who once was Mrs. Lillian Yorke, wife of the dentist to the emperor of Germany, charged her husband with contempt of court for his failure to pay an allimony of $125 per month granted her in April.

Mead, who is head of the George H. Mead advertising agency, told the court Mrs. Mead had an income sufficient to meet all her needs.

Mrs. Mead, who has apartments at 1537 East Sixtieth street, is at present in Madison, Wis. She was represented in court by her attorney, Sidney B. Meyer.

VICIOUS PET DOGS BITE SEVEN.

Five Children Playing Near Their Homes Attacked by Animals, According to Police Reports.

Seven persons were attacked and bitten by vicious pet dogs yesterday, according to police reports. The victims:

Bertha Lens, 7 years old, 3112 North Kedzie avenue.
Alex Potman, 6, 1432 South Sangamon street.
Sam Saporito, 9, 530 West Polk street.
Ellsworth Castro, 4, 2146 West Thirteenth street.
Frances Geduiding, 9, 3241 Fifth avenue.
Alexander Ressop, 911 South Center street.
Harry Daly, 45 East Chicago avenue.

The children all were playing near their homes.

SMOKERS IN ZION BURN SIGNBOARD

Voliva's New Warning Makes a Bonfire; Independents Watch and Smoke.

ZIONITES CALL FIREMEN.

Department Responds Leisurely; Arrives in Time to Pull Down Blazing Ruins.

The handsome new warning to "tobacco stinkpots" which Overseer Voliva of Zion City had erected in the form of a big billboard opposite the Cook Electrical company's shop was burned last night. The Cook workers and others of the growing independent faction stood about it, celebrating the event with incense from their pipes and cigarets and singing parodies on the anti-tobacco chants of the Zion band.

Meanwhile the rest of the independents were holding a rally and arranging for the dinner in honor of the Cook workers who brought smoke to Zion after many years.

Warnings on Both Sides.

It was a large night for the independent faction. The Voliva contingent did not care so much about it. Much care had been used in building it. The old one was burned ten days ago and the churchmen helped another to grow from its ashes—a little stronger in its denunciation of the "stinkpots" than the first.

The legends were painted on both sides, with a vacant space left between the two rows of boarding. That was a mistake. The rebels stuffed that space full of oil soaked cotton waste, touched a match, and began the celebration dance. A whole army of Zionites poured down the street and sent in a desperate call for the firemen.

Firemen Pull Ruins Down.

The engine company, rebel in sympathy, ambled leisurely down the street and sat on the fence until the fire was out.

Then the firemen brought out some hooks and pulled the smouldering stumps to the ground, adding to the delight of the insurgents.

Overseer Voliva has not decided what he will do about it, but his deacons insist that a steel sign be erected. Most of the churchmen at the time of the blaze were in the temple watching the preliminary work of building the new organ, which, it is claimed, will be larger than the famous organ at Salt Lake City.

ACQUITS EX-MAYOR OF MURDER.

Jury Frees F. C. Kelbel of Morris, Ill., After Lee O'Neill Browne Talks Against Him.

Aurora, Ill., May 7.—[Special.]—Former Mayor Frank C. Kelbel of Morris, Ill., was found guilty of a charge of murder by a jury in the La Salle county Circuit court at Ottawa today. He shot and killed Ole Thompson, former well known Kendall county farmer, in an argument over a horse race.

The case went to the jury yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock after Attorney Lee O'Neill Browne, former minority leader in the legislature, had asked for conviction.

Thompson had his horse entered in a matinée at Morris and other owners protested against his driver, William Irish of Joliet, claiming he was foul. The horse and driver were ruled out of the race.

The body of John Shunek, who formerly lived at 1416 West Twentieth street, was found in a clump of bushes in the northeastern part of Douglas park, West Twelfth street and South California avenue, early last evening. The body, with a revolver near it, was found by a park policeman.

WEST FETES MEDINAH TEMPLE

Patrol in Drills Makes Many Friends En Route to Coast.

CANTEENS GIVEN THE MEN.

Gold Badges Received from the Pasadena Board of Trade.

Los Angeles, Cal., May 7.—[Special.]—Medinah Temple came, saw, and conquered. Scarcely had the three sections special crossed the border into Utah than Capt. Frank C. Roundy rounded up his patrol and informed the members that at every stopping place across the sandy and butted wastes they would descend from the train and show the desert people what real true Nobles from Chicago could do.

At Las Vegas, Nev., the Arab patrol and its band lined up and drilled for thirty minutes while the train crew watered the iron camel and dusky denizens of the dining cars loaded provisions.

City of Las Vegas Responds.

Four cowboys, as many drooping horses, an Indian, twenty-four dogs, and about half as many coyotes were all that were in evidence when the trains stopped. An instant later a cowboy declared it was time to call the guard. He drew his pistol and the citizenry, fire and police department responded and Medinah had made 412 more friends.

To repeat this a dozen times would be a history of the pilgrimage in the desert.

At Pasadena this afternoon the Medinah patrol captivated an audience of thousands and the members were awarded beautifully engraved sterling silver canteens, which bore the scimiter and crescent, pyramids, and an Arab leading a heavily laden camel through a palm cluster. The gift was from the Al Malaikah Temple of Los Angeles. The Pasadena board of trade awarded beautiful gold badges.

Plan Return to Chicago.

The Chicago pilgrims are planning to return to Chicago by three different routes, leaving Los Angeles Thursday night and early Friday morning. One train will return via San Francisco and the Canadian Rockies another by Salt Lake and Denver, and a third through the Grand cañon.

STRIKE OF ELEVATOR MEN MAKES MANY CLIMB STAIRS.

Operators Quit in Two Kesner Office Buildings—Return When Owner Tells All to Join Union.

More than 1,500 persons climbed the stairways in the Kesner building at Madison street and Wabash avenue for two hours yesterday morning while the elevator conductors and starters were on strike. The building is eighteen stories high. The strike was called at 9 o'clock and settled at 11.

At the same time the tenants of the old Municipal court building at 118 South Michigan avenue were walking up its eight flights of stairway. The building trades workmen employed to add six stories to that building walked out because nonunion elevator operators were employed.

Both buildings are owned by Jacob L. Kesner. He got busy immediately after the walkout occurred and by 11 o'clock had compelled all of his nonunion elevator employes in the building on Michigan avenue to join the union. When this was accomplished both the building trades and the elevator men returned to work.

THE PRINCESS TOKIO
New Method of Removing Wrinkles.

Send Quickly for This Great Wrinkle Book and Start at Once to Remove Your Wrinkles.

Did you ever see a Japanese woman with a clouded complexion? Did you ever see one with wrinkles, irrespective of age? Then learn how they achieve and maintain these lines of splendid feminine beauty. For the first time in America, the Princess Tokio methods are being made known, and they are a revelation. Never before have Christian women been able to solve the secrets of these oriental beauties, whose faces and forms have been the marvel through the ages. But at last the treasure-trove has been unlocked, and there is set before every American lady who writes immediately, the full knowledge of these methods.

The Princess Tokio Wrinkle Book is a message full of sisterly feeling and sympathy for the American ladies. It tells, without hesitation, all about the Princess Tokio new method of removing wrinkles without harmful creams, pastes, lotions, or plasters, or mechanical appliances.

Reports from all over America prove conclusively the wondrous excellence of this remarkable new treatment and it is simply astonishing the thousands of letters being received from grateful women. A letter today from Mrs. H. E. Campbell states she used this treatment for two weeks and her wrinkles are all gone, and she further states that her face is as smooth as it was when she was a girl and that she is so happy that she cannot say too much in praise of this remarkable new treatment.

Ada Colville of Texas states that she used the treatment eight days and her face is entirely free of wrinkles and she is so delighted that she has found something that will keep her young longer.

A letter just received at this office from Mrs. A. L. Morran, away off in Canada, states that she was delighted with this new combination wrinkle treatment. That it removed all her wrinkles and leaves the face smooth as an infant's and makes the skin fresh and young looking.

Mrs. E. W. Jones in her letter states: "The Princess Tokio Wrinkle Treatment is excellent. She further states that it not only removed her wrinkles, but made her face as soft and smooth as velvet, and that she never before found a remedy which would make her young-looking, and that she tried Chicago and New York treatments without success.

From the glowing letters of praise pouring in, it is evident that this remarkable remedy has created a veritable sensation and furore in the fashionable homes, and prominent society women and actresses adopt this method of remaining young-looking, banishing all signs of age.

Not Sent to Ladies Over 70.

The Princess Tokio book is free to every lady who writes, except those over seventy years of age. To these the Princess Tokio methods extend no hope—for they have neglected themselves for such a long period it is impossible to benefit through the knowledge after 70 years of age.

If you are a matron, would you like to look like a girl again? If you are fifty years of age would you wish to look like a splendid young woman of twenty-five? If you are forty would you like to look like a girl just out of her teens? Then to you this book will be of inestimable value. Keep that in mind. There is no charge for the Princess Tokio Wrinkle Book. It is a rare message for ladies wishing to learn of the new way to remove wrinkles and regain a youthful face.

SEND NO MONEY.

Under no circumstances will money be accepted for the Princess Tokio Book about wrinkles. It is yours absolutely free. It will be given to you with a willing hand, by one who believes that there has dawned the most splendid day for American women of all ages up to seventy. It is a message of the most hearty good cheer, and so unlike anything American, it is a treat in its direct instructions. All you need to do is to send and ask for a FREE copy, addressing the Princess Tokio B. C., Suite 1881, Central Bank Building, Denver, Colo.

You may rest assured that this book will be sent in a plain wrapper.

It tells how to remove every wrinkle by entirely new treatment in only eight days.

N. B. Arrangements have been made whereby all our readers may receive all that is offered free, and you need inclose a stamp to prove that you are really in need of a quick wrinkle remover.

THE MEMORIAL.

The English are shaping their admiration of the Titanic dead to tangible ends. A shilling fund has been opened. Part of the money contributed to it will be used to erect a memorial at Southampton in honor of the engineering staff of the ship.

The engineers remained at their posts and kept the power plant going even as the ship was sinking. It was due to their efforts that there were dynamos working for the wireless operators, that there were lights, and that the pumps were in operation.

A memorial will be placed at the port from which the Titanic sailed. Is there to be none to all the conspicuous and unconspicuous dead in the port which the Titanic did not reach?

MARYLAND FOR ROOSEVELT.

The president's nearest neighbors have found against him. Within sight of the capitol dome they went to the polls and voted for his rival.

The test in Maryland was a fair one. This historic border state is "debatable ground" between Republican and Democrat, and that it has gone for Col. Roosevelt by about the same plurality as Massachusetts went for Mr. Taft is significant. The victory for Roosevelt means more than one more delegation, one more state for him. It shows his strength in the doubtful states, the states that must be won.

The vote, furthermore, was a vote of the people, not of the political organizations, and the issue was uncomplicated by other issues. It was a straight out contest and Col. Roosevelt is substantially advanced by it toward his nomination.

THE INCORRIGIBLES.

Two years ago a chauffeur ran over and killed a woman in the presence of her husband and children.

Evidence before the coroner indicated that he was speeding. He had taken the car without right, had filled it with cronies, and had visited saloons during the ride. He was tried for manslaughter six months later, and the jury was not convinced of his guilt. He was released.

The normal man would have had his lesson for life. He had killed a woman. The fact itself was bad enough with its pathetic circumstances, even though he may not have blamed himself. Then followed six months in jail pending trial—a long period to think it over.

It is true he escaped a penal sentence, but this experience would have left its mark on the character of most men for life.

Saturday night this chauffeur again ran down and killed a pedestrian.

Joy riding and speeding ought to be a more costly vice than it is.

Accidents sometimes happen through the negligence of pedestrians, but the speed madness of the young, undisciplined, sometimes half intoxicated driver is to blame for more and especially for the most serious ones.

OF COURSE NOT.

It is necessary, of course, to give credulous ear to the assertions of various Democratic candidates for president and of their managers and publicity agents that there is no concerted campaign against Gov. Woodrow Wilson. It was merely accident that Mr. Wilson found himself fighting Clark in Illinois, Pennsylvania, Oklahoma, Wisconsin, etc.; Clark and Foss in Massachusetts, Harmon and Underwood in Texas, Underwood in Alabama and Florida, Clark and Harmon in Nebraska, Harmon in Ohio, etc. —that in every state in which his campaign was carried he found only one or two of the opposing field and always the strongest.

Gov. Wilson, being a credulous and well believing person, will accept the statements of the other candidates as conclusive, but he will continue to wonder why he can't find the whole field in any one state. Wherever there is a chance for the name of a presidential candidate to go on a ballot or go before the voters Wilson's name is submitted—and generally one other.

An incredulous person might think that a careful survey of the country had been made a year ago by the assorted candidates and that states had been assigned just as they might be allotted to commercial travelers.

Incredulous persons might make out a case, but to do so they would have to ignore the candid statements of the assorted candidates who are innocent. They are not making Mr. Wilson the first victim in a battle royal. Indeed, they are not.

ILLITERACY IN AMERICA.

The general decrease of illiteracy in the United States reported by the census bureau was commented upon in these columns six weeks ago. As was then pointed out the last ten years have reduced this percentage from 10.7 to 7.7 per cent, a splendid showing.

Nevertheless, the percentage, as was then said, is too high. The negro is the chief factor in keeping it high, and this is not a reproach against him but against the whites of the south, who have disfranchised him. Though he does the hard manual work upon which the economic prosperity of any region depends, he is given most inadequate schooling.

In Louisiana the percentage of illiteracy of children over 10 is 29. With the steadily growing material prosperity of the south the next decade should show a great reduction of illiteracy, and will unless the leaders in the south fail to realize that an illiterate, serf caste is the worst menace conceivable to the material as well as the moral progress of a modern state.

It is of only temporary importance that New York and Connecticut are the only states in the union which show no decrease. Heavy immigration from countries of high illiteracy explains this, and it is being rapidly absorbed and transformed except as to seasonal laborers who do not vote.

In Illinois there are 168,241 illiterates over ten years of age, a percentage of 3.7. Michigan has a percentage of 3.3, Wisconsin 3.2, Indiana 3.1, and Iowa has the lowest percentage of any state in the union, 1.7.

If literacy meant education, the democratic experiment in America would be successful. But we are realizing more every year that literacy is only the first step in a difficult process, a process which the American republic must understand and master more thoroughly than it has if the republic is to endure.

DIGNITY AND POLITICS.

There is a disposition in some staid centers, particularly in the east, to be cast down by the prospect of presidential preference primaries forcing an undue, undignified, and undesirable activity on the man occupying the high office and seeking to retain it.

Any dolor which afflicts sedate minds because of this is merely hypochondriac. The buffers which stood between presidential dignity and the shocks of the rude world generally were capable gentlemen, one or more in each state, who not infrequently afterward served as effective chevaux-de-frise between the president and the people who had elected him.

We are coming to believe that presidential dignity does not need a Frisian cheval, and that there is no lowering of the office if an accounting be made directly.

Furthermore, did the buffers ever really give any sanctity to the dignity of the office? It does not need the memory of an old citizen to recall the bitterness, the indecencies, and the vulgarities of the Blaine-Cleveland campaign, for instance. The boys of that day were singing songs calculated to leave no respect whatever for the occupant of the presidency. One will be recalled, relating to the complete absence of musca domestica (and, by the way, it's time to swat him again) on Mr. Blaine, while "poor old Grover is covered all over."

The respectfulness of campaigns, even when the president maintained a cloistered aloofness, was more imagined than real. Politics has been progressing steadily toward decency and not away from it. The Republican campaign at the present is vigorous. It is frank in the use of plain words. It is described as being one of "personalities," whereas, as a matter of fact, "personality" in the sense of involving other than acts of public administration has been entirely lacking.

Candidates for office are discussing each other's qualifications with regard to specific acts and policies. If the preferential primary brings about a frank public consideration of such things, let's have more preference primaries.

IN the present stage of his memory "Kimmel's" name may be written 'Kimmel.'

IT is a comfort to know, at any rate, that young William Vincent Astor will not have to toil for his living.

AT the proper time Gen. Felix Agnus will remove all doubt by telling us just whose Maryland it is.

ARRAYED in the apparel of a gentleman of wealth and fashion the Hon. Bob Fitzsimmons can walk the streets now without having a crowd tagging at his heels.

"NOTHING," says Dr. Wiley, "shrinks as fast as ham." Did he ever happen to notice an owl in a rainstorm?

THIS is a phenomenal year, and anything is likely to happen. Note the position of the Washington baseball club in the percentage column.

SENATORIAL action on the Lorimer case is slower than Mark Twain's celebrated ascent of Mount Vesuvius.

HEAR the pathetic plea of the Hon. Ben Tillman. He asks to be sent back to the senate, so he "can die in harness." But he makes no promises and sets no date.

REGRETS are useless, of course, but how easy it might have been to swing the Democratic party of Illinois to Wilson if Senator Joe Bailey had been sent here to boost Champ Clark!

"O, yes; this must be the painting called 'Still Life' in the catalogue."

He Had.

How to Keep Well. By Dr. W. A. Evans.

Questions pertinent to hygiene, sanitation, and prevention of disease, if matters of generdl interest, will be answered in this column. Where space will not permit or the subject is not suitable letters will be personally answered, subject to proper limitations and where a stamped addressed envelope is inclosed. Dr. Evans will not make diagnoses or prescribe for individual diseases. Requests for such service cannot be answered.

MALARIA.

IN the vicinity of Chicago there is no malaria now, and there has been none for ten years. The focus which developed from the drainage canal diggers in the early '90s and that from the returned soldiers in the late '90s each lasted but a few years. Three years ago the Chicago health department began refusing to accept malaria as a cause of death where the decedent had been out of the malarial belt for more than a few months.

While malaria is a country disease and the cities are first to escape its effects, the entire upper Mississippi valley has shared the good fortune of the cities. There is no malaria worth speaking of in the Mississippi valley north of St. Louis, and another ten years will see its northern boundary moved as far south as Cairo, Ill.

From Drake's "Diseases of the Mississippi Valley" we learn that three-quarters of a century ago it was much the worst pestilence in this part of the country, and no part of the Mississippi valley was exempt.

But no old citizen of this part of the country needs to read Drake's book. The ague of the Wabash was proverbial, and every old settler accepted it as inevitable.

While in certain parts of the south malaria causes a moderate number of deaths, in the main the harm that it does is through reducing efficiency. In this particular no disease outranks it except hookworm. Persons suffering from chronic malaria and malarial anemias mope around trying to earn a day's pay, but not succeeding very well. The employer loses money on them.

Another ten years will see the zone of efficiency from malaria shrivel up just as the zone of malaria as a life hazard has already shrunk. One thing is certain, there must be sick people to keep the seed going, and the malarial stock farms, those sick and partly sick, are getting fewer year by year.

In the '80s, from time to time, ships would come into New Orleans from Colon with every one on board down with Chagres fever, a severe form of malaria. An Osler's practice, dated 1894, said: "The most characteristic malaria is to be found in the workmen returning from the Panama canal, the victims of Chagres fever."

The Chagres fever is in the Canal Zone and malaria is now so insignificant there that it does not materially hamper the work of the war department—an almost unbelievable contrast with the conditions of less than ten years ago. The isthmian canal report for February, 1912, recorded but 505 cases and two deaths.

When the Chagres river is cleaned up the very heart of the "enemy's country" will have been captured.

FLESH MADE BY MILK.

P. S. C. writes: "1. Will milk, if taken daily, make flesh? If it will, how much ought to be taken, and how? 2. Is olive oil good for the system and does it make flesh? 3. Will either of these force pimples to appear?"

REPLY.

1. Yes. Three pints a day in addition to plenty of other nutritious food. 2. Fairly good, but not especially so. 3. Yes—both.

HARDENING OF THE ARTERIES.

J. W. writes: "(1) In the case of an individual about 40 suffering from premature hardening of the arteries, not in any marked degree, but where the hardening is perhaps ten years in advance of his years, can it be arrested? (2) Would or does this condition necessarily lead to or cause bodily discomfort, disability to perform manual labor, illness, or shortening of life? (3) Are fat, well nourished people usually those whose arteries are in prime condition? (4) What is considered the normal blood pressure?"

REPLY.

1. Yes, by eating in moderation, living temperately and hygienically.
2. No, as to all except the last, and even that can be avoided.
3. No. Fat people usually have pressure a little higher than normal.
4. One hundred and ten to 140, but what is normal at one age is high at another. It is lowest in infancy, rapidly heightens during childhood and adolescence, then slowly until 70 to 80, after which it may be somewhat lower. The force of the heart beat is a contributory factor and that goes off a little in old age.

CONSULT YOUR DENTIST AGAIN.

W. E. L. writes: "About three months ago my physician told me that I had symptoms of a gum or tooth trouble called pyorrhœa. He advised me to consult a specialist, and I did so. This man did nothing but clean my teeth apparently. My gums ache seriously when I chew my food and my teeth feel sore. My throat also feels a bit sore sometimes when eating. If you will tell me in your column what is the matter with me I will thank you."

REPLY.

Your gums might be sore from neuralgia. If a physician who saw you said you had pyorrhœa, that probably is the cause of your pain. Talk with the dentist who saw you and get his opinion as to whether you have pyorrhœa. If you have it you need something in addition to one simple cleaning.

INTESTINAL WORMS.

J. A. W. writes: "What are the symptoms, causes, and cure of intestinal worms, and what diet should be pursued to get them out of one's system? Are they forerunners of, or do they cause any diseases? Do they cause blood impoverishment?"

REPLY.

Ordinary round worms seldom cause any symptoms. They do no special harm. They are not the forerunners of any disease. They do not cause blood impoverishment. The ordinary worm medicines are effective. The same statements are true of thread worms, except that they cause a little local irritation and worm medicines by mouth are not effective. Proper worm medicines by enemas are.

HOW TO GET SAFE MILK.

M. A. S. writes: "How is a person to know that milk is free from tubercle bacilli? I was brought up in the old fashioned way, but what of the new way I am learning has certainly been a benefit to me and I will keep on. I have an idea how hard it is to convince others of this truth from my own experience."

REPLY.

You are on the right track. Keep it up. The way to get milk free from tubercle bacilli is to patronize only responsible people who guarantee their milk from nontubercular cows, or who guarantee their pasteurization, or else heat the milk before you use it.

Methodists Defeat Plan for Ecclesiastical Court.

BY THE REV. W. D. NORTON.

Minneapolis, Minn., May 7.—[Special.]—The appeal to the people won today in the Methodist general conference when the proposition to establish an ecclesiastical supreme court was defeated after a discussion which occupied the entire forenoon session.

The ablest legal and ecclesiastical talent among the delegates took opposite sides on the question, which has been under consideration since the last general conference appointed a commission to propose a plan to regulate judicial procedure in the church.

The Rev. R. J. Cooke, book editor of the church and secretary of the commission, made the opening and closing arguments in support of the establishment of a permanent tribunal to whom all appeals should be made and to whom final authority would be given as to the constitutionality of all laws passed by the general conference.

He was supported by Justice Anderson of the Supreme court of the District of Columbia; Henry Ade Rogers, dean of the Yale University Law school; Judge Hiram L. Sibley of Marietta, O.; and the Rev. James I. Bartholemew of New Bedford, Mass.

Those who spoke in opposition were the Rev. James M. Buckley of New York, the Rev. Robert Forbes of Philadelphia, Charles L. Swain, an attorney of Cincinnati; the Rev. Edmund J. Kulp of Camden, N. J.; the Rev. Edgar Blake of Chicago, the Rev. R. A. Chase of Greeley, Colo.; and Benjamin F. Edsall, an attorney of Newark, N. J.

Those who favored the court drew their analogies from the example of the civil courts, while those in opposition argued that the church should administer its laws on an entirely different principle. "The state can use force," said Dr. Kulp, "the church cannot. The state administers justice over all citizens, the church only over those who are in its voluntary membership. There is a deep, wide, and valid difference between the administration of civil and ecclesiastical law.

Organic union of the Methodist Episcopal church and the Methodist Episcopal church south was argued tonight by the Rev. Frank M. Thomas, fraternal delegate from the church south.

A commission on the union of the churches has been in conference during the last four years and it is expected a report will be made which will advance the cause of union.

The colored delegates are continuing their efforts to secure the election of a bishop of the colored race, and, if possible, two men whose authority will be confined to the colored churches. They have agreed upon the Rev. R. E. Jones, editor of the Southwestern Christian Advocate, as their choice for one of the candidates. Dr. Jones is urged on the ground of his capacity and church leadership.

The committee episcopacy holds secret sessions. It is the only committee which is thus safeguarded. However, certain information is bound to become public. It is asserted by those who profess to know that the subcommittee on episcopal residence of the committee on episcopacy has practically decided to establish new episcopal residences at Helena, Mont.; Los Angeles, Cal.; Pittsburgh, Detroit, and Kansas City.

If these cities are selected the claims of Cleveland and Bismarck would be disallowed. The present official residences would remain as now, with the possible exception that New Orleans might be dropped.

It was rumored today that Bishop Bashford, who has passed the last two quadrennium in China, will resign from the episcopacy and accept the position of corresponding secretary of foreign missions.

What's Life's Biggest Aim? Suffrage, Woman's Answer

What is life's biggest purpose? That question confronted seventy speakers and 700 women yesterday at the annual May breakfast of the Social Economics club in Mandel's tearoom. Some of the biggest purposes follow:

"To be good and to work for Chicago."—Dr Willis O. Nance, alderman of the Sixth ward.

"To make the most of life and to get the most in life."—Dr. John Timothy Stone.

"To work."—Frank Comerford.

"The greatest thing in life is the masculine voting trust. The greatest purpose is to liberate women."—Mrs. Catharine Waugh McCulloch.

"Growth is the greatest purpose in life."—The Rev. Fred V. Hawley.

"To do unto others as you would others should do unto you."—Mrs. D. Harry Hammer.

"To make the most of the opportunities of life and to be a good mother."—Mrs. M. L. Purvin.

"Love and truth," Mrs. Lillian Woodward Street.

The suffrage speech of Mrs. McCulloch was the opening wedge for many other Chicago suffragists to assert that the ballot for women, dressed perhaps in different words, was life's greatest purpose. Among those were Mrs. Jennie F. W. Johnson, Mrs. T. B. Wiggin, Mrs. Bertram Sippy, and Mrs. Freeman Brown.

Illinois Lawyers' Vote on Recall Proves Surprise.

Much to the surprise of the committee in charge of the poll, the Illinois State Bar association voted against the judicial recall at a ratio of only about 5 to 1. It had been expected the vote would be 10 to 1 against the proposition.

The results of the mail ballot computed yesterday—the last day for votes—follows:

For the recall by popular vote of judges in Illinois	309
Against	545
For the recall by popular vote of decisions involving constitutional questions	143
Against	515

At the annual meeting of the association at the Hotel La Salle on April 26, Henry Porter Chandler, J. J. Forstall, and Harry J. Lurie were appointed a committee to publish the speeches on the recall issue and to distribute them throughout the membership of the organization, together with ballots asking for votes upon the proposition.

They were mailed to the secretary, John F. Voigt, assistant United States district attorney, and were counted in his office yesterday.

"We had expected 10 to 1 against the recall," said Mr. Lurie, "so the vote of only 5 to 1 is a surprise. That the majority against the recall of decisions involving constitutional questions is still less than that is even a greater surprise."

It was said some of the most prominent members of the association voted in favor of both propositions.

Secretary Voigt ruled that the ballot was secret. The names were not disclosed.

WASTE INQUIRERS ON TRIP.

The special Chicago commission appointed to investigate the disposal of waste in other municipalities started at midnight for St. Louis. The members expect to be gone ten days in visiting Cincinnati, Columbus, Pittsburgh, Philadelphia, New York, Buffalo, Cleveland, Detroit, and Toledo. Members of the commission are: Ald. Richert, Harding, Sitta, W. F. Ryan, Health Commissioner Young, Commissioner of Public Works McGann, and Supt. of Streets Solon. Upon their report probably will depend a policy to be inaugurated by Chicago.

THE GREAT OBSESSION.

Lady with the rampant broom,
Fixed tho' your resolve may be,
Hearken ere you clean this room
To a word or two from me.

Know you not that microbes lurk
Here and there and everywhere,
And that all this "cleaning" work
Simply populates the air?

Now these microbes lie asleep,
Harmless, in a thousand nooks;
Dormant where the dust is deep,
Back of pictures, back of books.

Lady, clean, if clean you must,
But I say beware of these
Demons lurking in the dust,
"Pathogenic entities."

O, the many, many lives
Ignorantly cast away
By our dust-disturbing wives
Since the first spring cleaning day!

Lady with the cleaning bee,
You are much too young to die.
Take a timely tip from me:
Let the sleeping microbe lie!

My mother was an invalid,
And was for many a year,
And I being the eldest daughter
Her life I had to cheer.
I had two little sisters,
And a brother which made three,
And dear mother being sickly,
Their care it fell on me.

My parents moved to Algoma
Near twenty-three years ago,
And bought one hundred acres of land,
That's a good-sized farm you know.
It was then a wilderness,
With tall forest trees abound,
And it was four miles from a village,
Or any other town.

And it was two miles from a schoolhouse,
That's the distance I had to go,
And how many times I traveled
Thro' summer suns and winter snow.
How well do I remember
Going to school many a morn,
Both in summer and in winter,
Thro' many a heavy storm.

News of the Theaters.

Sothern-Marlowe at the Lyric.

BY PERCY HAMMOND.

THE annual visit of Mr. Sothern and Miss Marlowe, in progress at the Lyric, is not marked by new presentations nor thus far by important changes in the old. Monday night's performance of "Romeo and Juliet" was the same conventional interpretation as of other years glorified by Miss Marlowe's bewitching personal charm and by the fidelity of her understanding and acting. Mr. Sothern's Romeo seemed a bit sallow and solemn, though exquisitely passionate at times, and his diction less jumpy than it has been before. The same somewhat ostentatious but not elaborate production is retained for the pleasure of those who like their Shakspeare that way, and the Lyric was pretty well filled with the usual Shakspearean audience. It was explained that the weather and the absence of publicity caused by the newspaper strike were responsible for the vacant seats and boxes.

Last night's "Macbeth" again showed Mr. Sothern the squat and timid warrior of his last season's performance, and Miss Marlowe a dimpled and lovely partner of his misdemeanors. Many players and much scenery were employed in the spectacle. This afternoon "The Taming of the Shrew" will be presented and this evening "The Merchant of Venice."

"The Drums of Oude."

WHEN David Belasco takes on the minor function of vaudeville producer, he is still David Belasco. His title of "wizard" may have become a bit fatiguing to the public, but it cannot be denied him. The staging of "Madame Butterfly" at the Palace theater last week brought this conviction, and the presentation of "The Drums of Oude," which was disclosed at the same playhouse yesterday, enforces it.

"The Drums of Oude" is one of the few—the very few—real dramas in miniature ever seen in vaudeville. There are thousands of so-called one-act plays, of course, but they deserve to be labeled as nothing more than "sketches." This piece, which is now having its first hearing on the American stage after achiving fame by a two years' run in London as a curtain raiser, possesses all the fiber, stamina, and thrill of "The Littlest Rebel"—to take a war play of recent memory—and yet it is compressed into thirty-five minutes of acting time. The reputation of the author, Mr. Austin Strong, for superior work in whatever line of writing he undertakes, receives no belittlement from "The Drums of Oude."

With only three leading characters this play is a picture in miniature of the Sepoy rebellion. Conspiracy among the natives, the fright of women, beleaguered garrisons, desparate defenses, and a brilliant rescue when massacre seems imminent—all these elements are adroitly blended into its fabric. Mr. Belasco's staging, it may be added, makes the oriental interiors of the lovely "Sumurun" seem rather shabby.

Here is the story in brief: A native palace in India, held by a regiment of Highlanders, has been left badly garrisoned at the outbreak of the mutiny. Its magazine, containing tons of powder, is to be the objective point of the uprising. The monotonous tapping of Hindu drums in the city is carrying the signal for revolt far and wide; the civilians and English women of the station come trooping into the palace for protection. Among them is a fair widow, Mrs. Clayton, eternally beloved by the stanch officer in command. With British sangfroid he quiets her alarm and does the gallant, while preparing to blow up the powder magazine at a moment's notice. The usual vows are exchanged, and then he tells her the truth. Next, the attack outside; the trumpet signal which means that the Sepoys have crossed the wall; it is time to light the fuse. The soldier's sweetheart helps him in this grim duty; but just as the spark is about to reach the powder she tramples it out. Music of bagpipes; "The Campbells Are Coming"; and a final volleying of guns to indicate the rapid extermination of the murderous natives. If you are at all susceptible to martial emotions it makes you want to stand up and cheer.

E. J. Ratcliffe, always good as a soldierman, plays the heroic captain, and Eleanor Scott L'Estelle is a charming opposite for him. Jack Standing is so real as a British lieutenant that you can hardly understand what he is talking about. Highland grenadiers and natives fill in the picture. The cast of the bill at the Palace is up to the high standard of the Palace management.

Shore Plan Advocates Rebuffed by Aldermen.

Supporters of the last agreement entered into between the south park board members and the Illinois Central railroad company concerning south shore improvement plans received another rebuff yesterday at a meeting of the committee on harbors, wharves, and bridges.

Frank I. Bennett, representing the Chicago plan commission, appeared to protest against the council resolution of Ald. Littler instructing the corporation counsel to resist in every possible way the court ratification of the park board-railway agreement.

Despite the arguments of Mr. Bennett, a member of the committee would make a motion to change the pending resolution, and the subject ended with the discussion arising from Mr. Bennett's speech.

Ald. Littler, chairman of the committee, and Ald. Thomson defended the resolution.

"The resolution now before the city council is misleading in several ways," Mr. Bennett said. "It reflects upon the agreement which has been entered into between the park commissioners and the railroad company, and I do not think the statement of facts is correct. Another resolution simply asking the corporation counsel to see that the city's rights are conserved in the agreement is quite sufficient."

"The resolution now in the hands of the council states just exactly what I believe to be the facts," Ald. Littler said. "I am firmly of the opinion that the city has some rights in this agreement matter and that it should have something to say about the arrangements made for deeding property to the railroad and lake shore improvement plans. There is much objection to giving the Illinois Central railroad or any other railroad a wider right of way through the city as is contemplated in this agreement."

"The agreement doesn't attempt to interfere with the rights of the council," Mr. Bennett said. "The title of the submerged lands which are to be used under the agreement terms for the site of the Field museum now in the hands of the park board and the city has no rights there. I think there is no chance in the agreement which provides for anything in which the city has a right."

"I take it that Ald. Littler's resolution recites the position of the city council in this matter," Ald. Thomson said. "I know it indicates my own views. I want to see the resolution left as it is and the corporation counsel instructed to go into court and fight a ratification of the agreement unless the city is considered."

Ald. Littler said that the committee on ordinance concerning the shore improvement plans was ready for consideration now, but advised waiting until there is some definite action upon the park board-railway agreement. Besides making provision for the electrification and a much more comprehensive plan for track depression the drafted ordinances demands the removal of the Twenty-second street station east of Indiana avenue and the widening of that thoroughfare.

Ald. Littler will be in Springfield soon to work for the legislative measures to give the park board more extensive powers in land condemnation proceedings.

COMPEL ACTION IN LORIMER CASE

Dillingham Minority to Force Majority to Submit Report.

DEBATE BEGINS AT ONCE.

Mask Grumbling at Delay; Public Hearings Closed on Feb. 9.

BY JOHN CALLAN O'LAUGHLIN.

Washington, D. C., May 7.—[Special.]—The majority of the Dillingham investigating committee, which favors the retention of William Lorimer in the United States senate, is to be forced by the minority opposed to him to submit its report to the senate.

This decision was reported at two meetings of the minority today, immediately following the return of Senator Kenyon from Iowa. During the morning Senators Kenyon, Kern, and Lea, comprising the minority, met in the senate office building, and another meeting was held in the afternoon. These meetings were for the purpose of carefully considering a draft of the "minority views," in which the three senators will concur.

According to the reports this afternoon the minority will ask permission of the senate tomorrow to file its statement, in order that the debate upon the resolution ousting Mr. Lorimer may begin without further loss of time.

Grumbling at Time Wasted.

There has been a great deal of grumbling on the part of members of the senate at the length of time the majority of the committee, consisting of Senators Dillingham of Vermont, Gamble of South Dakota, Jones of Washington, Fletcher of Florida, and Johnston of Alabama, has taken in making its report. It has even been charged that the delay was due to the desire of the Lorimer advocates to postpone action in this case until the next session of congress. This is denied by members of the majority.

Nevertheless it is a fact that the public hearings were closed on Feb. 9, almost three months ago. More than a month was given to the Lorimer attorney to prepare his brief. No brief was sought from the opposition to Mr. Lorimer. After the submission of the brief it was ten days before the committee voted upon the important issues which the evidence developed. This vote occurred on March 7, forty days ago.

Want to Know Cause of Delay.

Mr. Dillingham has been several times interrogated by Senator Crawford of South Dakota and Senator Bristow of Kansas as to the time when the report would be filed, but he has explained that he had been unable to be more expeditious because of the tremendous amount of testimony taken by the committee and the necessity of attending to other matters. He intimated in one of the replies he made that some time would elapse before the report could be filed.

The minority of the committee under the rules of the senate has no standing and therefore has been compelled to await the submission of the majority report before it could submit its "views."

The minority now feels that the country will hold it responsible, in conjunction with the majority, if there should be further delay. It proposes to show that it is ready to act, so that the responsibility for postponement will rest squarely upon Senators Dillingham, Gamble, Jones, Fletcher, and Johnston.

Course of Procedure Not Known.

What course of procedure will be followed is not known. This is being kept a secret, since its publication would enable the "old guard" defenders of Lorimer to checkmate any move made. These men can do nothing, however, unless they have the majority of the senate behind them.

Senator Dillingham, it is understood, will assure the senate that he has almost finished his report and that he will submit it in "a few days." He has been making this statement repeatedly, however, and it is now accepted as meaning nothing.

It may be expected that when the minority presents its views there will be some sharp parliamentary tactics indulged in by Vice President Sherman, who is strongly for Lorimer, and the regulars of the senate machine who are supporting the Illinois senator.

"TRIBUNE" CRUSADE CAUSES LOAN SHARK TO REFORM.

Brother Tells Effect of Exposures Upon Young Man Who Quits Discredited Business.

A singular tribute to the work of THE TRIBUNE anti-loan shark bureau is found in the following letter from a merchant in a small town in Illinois:

"I think your 'loan shark' crusade is the best thing that has developed in any public way in a long time.

"I have had a brother in this business in another town, and since you started this crusade I have sent him copies of your paper and prevailed upon him until he has abandoned this method of obtaining money.

"You only are responsible for this, and personally I thank you sincerely, as my brother is young and I believe it will be a help to his future."

This is not an exceptional case. More than one loan shark has been shamed out of the business since THE TRIBUNE crusade began. One loan shark who is "liquidating" told Attorney Daniel P. Trude that he had no moral scruples against the business, still he wanted to be out of the business before his little girl, now just starting to school, learns to read the papers.

DENEEN RULES COUNTY G. O. P.

Governor's Men Without Exception Elected to Committee.

FORECASTS LORIMER'S DOOM.

Senator Will Be Deprived of Any Connection with Organization.

The Republican county central committee was reorganized yesterday with Gov. Deneen in complete control. The new officers elected are all stanch and tried Deneen men and the makeup of the board of directors which will pass upon contests practically assures the retirement of Senator Lorimer from any part in Cook county affairs.

The meeting, held at the Republican headquarters at 126 Fifth avenue, is the last important session at the building that has been known as the center of Republican county affairs for many years. New quarters in the Otis building will be ready for occupancy within ten days or two weeks and th coming campaign will be directed from there.

New Officers Elected.

New officials elected were all on the Deneen slate, as follows:

Chairman—J. F. Devine.
Vice chairman—Isaac Bryan.
Treasurer—Isaac N. Powell.
Secretary—William H. Weber.

Secretary Weber is the only member of the committee to be reflected. Mr. Devine succeeds Charles Andrews, Bryan follows Postmaster Daniel A. Campbell, and the old treasurer of the committee was Fred A. Busse.

On the executive committee are the officers and these members of the general committee:

Francis P. Beadle,	Homer K. Galpin,
Roy O. West,	George Mugler,
J. J. Hamberg,	Joseph Rhea,
Charles W. Vail,	B. J. Clettenberg,
Thomas Healy,	J. J. Healy.

Lorimer Contest Weak.

The executive committee will meet on next Tuesday, and will set a date for the hearing of the contests filed by the Lorimer men in the Thirty-fourth and Thirty-fifth wards, where Senator Lorimer and Charles Peters, his lieutenant, are seeking places on the committee. Their claims, however, are looked upon by the Republican leaders as very weak, and the seating of O. J. Pellican in the Thirty-fourth and Thomas Gainty in the Thirty-fifth, both Deneen men, is forecast. There was no friction at the meeting.

It was agreed that the executive committee would cooperate during the campaign with the committee of 100, a joint campaign committee to be appointed to work for the Republican candidates.

Attorney Tolman Vainly Resorts to More Technicalities—Judge McKinley Denies His Motion to Vacate.

Technicalities were resorted to yesterday without result by counsel for County Judge John E. Owens and other officials in a final attempt to knock out the Democratic county convention injunctional order issued by Superior Judge M. L. McKinley.

The expected severe questioning on the witness stand of Judge Owens and his fellow defendants cited for contempt for refusing to obey Judge McKinley's order was delayed when Attorney Edgar B. Tolman offered an eleventh hour motion to vacate. A similar motion last week proved unavailing.

In his supplemental motion Mr. Tolman questioned the constitutionality of the Sunday injunction act of 1874, under which Judge McKinley proceeded, on the contention that it had not been legally passed by the legislature.

The court denied the vacation motion after it had been defended at length by Mr. Tolman and had been as vigorously attacked by Attorney Alfred S. Austrian, counsel for Democratic County Chairman John McGillen, the complainant. The hearing was not concluded.

MANUFACTURER'S WIFE GONE; WRITES INCOHERENT LETTER.

Mrs. Charles F. Schubert of Cudahy, Wis., Being Sought by Police of North Shore Cities.

Police of Kenosha, Wis., and all north shore cities, have been notified of the disappearance of Mrs. Rosalia Schubert, the wife of Charles F. Schubert, formerly a merchant in Milwaukee, and at present a wealthy manufacturer in Cudahy, Wis.

Mrs. Schubert, who is 35 years old, left her residence in Cudahy on Sunday about 2 p. m. Yesterday a letter was received from her by her 12 year old daughter, Norma Schubert, which was postmarked Kenosha. It was incoherent, but requested that her daughter join her. No address was given.

Mr. Schubert says his wife was in good health and had no reason to leave her home. He says he will offer a reward if she is not located within forty-eight hours.

from our May Sale of Lingerie

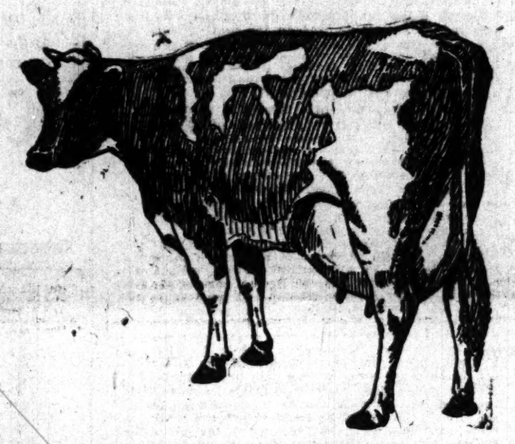
Night Robes, $1.95
Combination, $1.95

Trimmed in Hand Crocheted Lace

The strong values offered in our May Sale of Lingerie are aptly illustrated in the combination and night robes sketched, which show, in their many special features, our constant attention to details.

The Night Robe, for example, has the fitted bias back, an extremely graceful cut; and the square neck fits closely, without beading, in a most attractive manner. The material is a very fine nainsook, trimmed with bands of real hand crochet. Special, $1.95.

The Combination, in its close fit over the hips, narrow beading to do away with bulkiness at waist; and straight, narrow drawer, shows the same care in designing. It is made of fine nainsook, trimmed with real hand crochet. Special, $1.95.



MAKE sure of your milk and cream before the hot weather sets in.

Order Borden's and you may feel secure against any of the summer sickness that is traceable to impure milk and cream.

Remember that the warm days help to develop objectionable conditions if there are any impurities to work upon. There are none in Borden's milk and cream; the safest for health, the best for taste.

Ask a Borden driver for a copy of the little book on "Good Milk." It is free. This attractive little book in white and gold will tell you many things that every one should know about milk.

North Side Women Plan Suffrage Study Classes.

SUFFRAGE and society interests are becoming so closely intertwined in Chicago that it is difficult to mark the end of one and the beginning of the other.

This is particularly true since a group of the north side women have become enthusiastic enough to form an organization which is to be known as the north side branch of the Illinois Equal Suffrage association. Officers have been chosen and plans formulated for the work for the next year. Mrs. Tiffany Blake has been chosen president of the branch and Mrs. Hobart Chatfield-Taylor the vice president. Mrs. John Bass, secretary, and Miss Marie Josephine Rozet, treasurer, complete the officers, although there remains a long and important list of committees.

Miss Caroline Kirkland heads the educational committee; Mrs. Charles H. Hamill, who was one of the earliest suffrage advocates among the city's better known women, is the chairman of the publicity committee; Mrs. Joseph Medill Patterson, of the social committee; Mrs. R. T. Crane Jr., of the finance; Mrs. J. W. Morrison is in charge of the committee whose duty it is to organize auxiliaries, and Mrs. Kellogg Fairbank directs the work of the committee on membership. Mrs. Joseph Bowen, Mrs. Emmons Blaine, and Mrs. Cyrus H. McCormick are members at large of the executive committee.

The membership now includes nearly 100 well known women who mean to delve into the question intelligently. They are arranging for a study class for next winter, for three big meetings, and for a course of eight lectures to be delivered by men prominent in the political world of the day. In addition auxiliaries will be organized among the employed women of the north side and a course of lectures and study also will be planned to coincide with their hours.

With such a list of suffrage workers it might appear that society events of next winter more than ever will bear the imprint of the agitation of the hour.

Mrs. J. P. McCann, 1... Oak avenue, Evanston, who is chairman of the pennants committee which will take part in the ball game on May 18 at White Sox park for the benefit of the Visitation academy, will entertain her committee on Saturday at 2 o'clock at her residence. The committee consists of Mrs. J. P. McCann, the chairman, with Miss Mayme McCann, Miss Marie McGowan, Mrs. J. T. Byrnes, Miss Clara Connors, Miss Eunice McGill, Miss Dorothy Purcell, Miss Marjorie Lee, Miss Ruth Boylston, Miss Marie Boylston, Miss Alice Byrnes, Miss Fannie Flageole, Miss Louise Flageole, and Miss Ruth Connor as members.

Mr. and Mrs. William M. C. Kinney, 315 South Sacramento boulevard, announce the engagement of their daughter, Frances Edna, to Lieut. Benjamin Curtis McFadden, United States revenue cutter service, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh McFadden of Chicago.

Dr. and Mrs. George Edward Baxter, 5216 Kenmore avenue, left on Friday for Pasedena, where they will spend a short time. Later they will go to Oakland, where they will be the guests of Dr. and Mrs. J. Louis Lohse. Before returning from the west Dr. and Mrs. Baxter will visit the Yosemite valley and the Grand canon.

Mrs. Charles Walter Brown and daughter, Beatrice, of 4745 Sheridan road, are visiting Mrs. Brown's father, Col. C. C. Matson, at Greencastle, Ind.

Miss Charles S. Holt, Miss Marion H. Holt, Mrs. Belle McPherson Campbell, Edward Mendel, Mrs. Sarah A. Rea, Mr. and Mrs. L. Holland-Letz, and Miss Eva Holland-Letz were among the Chicagoans sailing yesterday for Europe.

The Beta chapter of the Beta Alpha Sigma sorority will entertain the Alpha and Gamma chapters of the sorority and several friends at a reception and dancing party at Rosalie hall on Saturday evening. Among those on the receiving committee are Miss Marie Ready, Miss Catherine Murphy, Miss Mae McGovern, and Miss Louise Quinlan.

The Y. L. S. of Mt. Carmel church will give its annual informal dancing party this evening at the Edgewater Country club. The patronesses are Mrs. Z. P. Brosseau, Mrs. E. A. Beauvais, Mrs. M. S. Madden, and Mrs. Fred Dilzer. The committee in charge of the event consists of Miss Alice Hassmer, Miss Alice Martin, Miss Maud Bean, and Miss Mary Carney.

Children at Y. W. C. A. Reception.

About 200 children assembled at the Y. W. C. A. clubhouse on Ashland boulevard yesterday afternoon. Refreshments were served and songs of the spring were sung. Following the children's reception announcement was made of the winners in the contest between the "red and white roses," two groups contesting with essays as to the best means of carrying on the extension work of the Y. W. C. A. The "white roses" won.

The board of managers gave a reception to girls. Mrs. William Studder, president of the board, and Miss L. W. Peet told of their success with the managers of large manufacturing plants in getting permission to give lectures on hygiene to women employes during the noon hour.

It was also announced that some one whose name was withheld had promised to furnish half the amount of money required to erect a new and larger clubhouse for the South Side Y. W. C. A., provided the board of managers obtained the other half. According to present plans the building will cost in the neighborhood of $75,000.

Catholic Women at Household Show.

Miss Anna Kelly, one of the two saved out of fifteen girls who started from Ireland together on the Titanic, was a visitor at the tea room in the Household show at the Coliseum last night as a guest of the members of the Catholic Women's league protectorate.

Miss Kelly was introduced to many visitors and told the story of her rescue.

Members of the league heard of the two girls and at once took them under their protection. The organization has conducted the tea room at the Household show for two days and the proceeds will be devoted to the young women. The affair has been under the supervision of Mrs. T. J. W...sh, assisted by:

Mrs. W. T. J. S...mer,	Mrs. J. L. Riley,
Mrs. S. K. Wi...n,	Mrs. John MacMahon,

University of Illinois to Celebrate.

A special program has been arranged in connection with the commencement exercises at the University of Illinois on June 12. It will mark the fiftieth anniversary of the passing of the land grant act of 1862, out of which grew the university.

President Edmund J. James will deliver an address on "The Life and Work of Jonathan B. Turner," to whom more than to any other the country is indebted for the plan which finally was incorporated in the act of 1862 and for the initiation and prosecution of the agitation which made its passage possible.

A. P. Grout of Winchester, on behalf of the commission on the Illinois Farmers' Hall of Fame, will present to the university a portrait of Mr. Turner. Gov. Deneen will speak on "The Function of Land Grant Colleges."

Gardening & Flowers.

The Tribune presents herewith the twentieth article of a series on flowers (indoor and outdoor) and flower and vegetable gardening. The writer is Eben E. Rexford, whose two books on floriculture and whose work as floricultural editor of the Ladies' Home Journal have acquainted Americans with his expert knowledge of the subject. The Tribune aims to print Mr. Rexford's articles twice a week, on Wednesdays and Saturdays.

The Gladiolus and the Tuberose.

BY EBEN E. REXFORD.

THOSE who see the gladiolus growing in perfection, in large masses, in the gardens of wealthy people, admire it as something to be enjoyed at second hand, but few of them seem to think it a plant that any one can grow as well as the professional gardener. Now the fact is that it is one of the easiest of all plants to grow. It adapts itself to nearly all soils. It requires very little care. In short, it is to the garden what the geranium is to the window, and it is easier to grow, if such a thing is possible, than that plant.

Its culture is of the simplest. Prepare the soil for it by spading to the depth of a foot and a half, and make it quite rich. About the middle of May—not before—set the corms in the ground, putting them at least three inches below the surface. I would advise planting in groups of a dozen or more, as this method gives a greater quantity of color than can possibly be secured by planting singly. Each strong corm will send up from one to four flower stalks, and each stalk will bear from a dozen to thirty blossoms in a spike a foot and a half in length. The lower flowers on the stalk will open first, and those above will follow in succession until the last bud has developed. If the stalk is cut when the first flowers open and the water in which it is placed is changed frequently every bud in the spike will develop the same as if the stalk were allowed to remain attached to the parent corm. This makes this flower one of the most valuable plants we have for cut flower purposes. Enormous quantities of it are sold in the cities during August and September. Especially is it useful for church decoration, as its habit adapts it to use in tall vases.

It is a good plan to provide some kind of a support for the tall flower stalks, which are easily broken down by strong winds. But tying them to stakes detracts from the grace of the plant. I have, for some years past, planted my gladioli in rows about eighteen inches wide. At the ends of the row I set stout stakes—one at each corner—and over these I stretch a coarse meshed wire netting about a foot and a half wide. If there is any danger of the netting sagging from not being stretched tight I run a strip of wood from stake to stake, and tack the netting to it. These stakes should be about fourteen or sixteen inches high—that is, they should extend that distance above the surface—and they should go into the ground far enough to give them a grip on the soil that will hold them firmly when you stretch the netting from one to the other of them. Unless this is drawn taut, and kept so, it will fail to do what is expected of it. When the flower stalks lengthen they will find their way up through the meshes of the netting, and these will furnish all the support that is needed and do it without interfering in any way with the natural habit of the plant. Such a support does away with the primness and lack of naturalness which characterizes plants tied to stakes. If the strips of wood extending from stake to stake are painted a dull green they will not be noticeable, and as the netting will not show among the stalks and foliage of the plants, the effect will be that of plants growing without artificial training, therefore, much more satisfactory in all respects than any other device I have any knowledge of.

The gladiolus comes in a wonderful range of colors. From white it runs through all shades of red, scarlet, and crimson to delicate rose, lilac, cherry, dark maroon, yellow, and purple, and in most flowers there will be striking combinations of several of these colors in featherings, blotches, and flakes. It will be difficult to find any two plants that are exactly alike in color and color arrangement. In this respect the gladiolus is on a par with the pansy.

I have never been able to explain to my satisfaction why the tuberose is not grown more than it is. It is a beautiful flower, with a rich fragrance that puts it in the same class with the gardenia, the magnolia, and the orange, so far as odor is concerned. It is not a difficult plant to grow. Give it a warm, sandy soil and full exposure to the sun, and it will do well in the northern garden. Before planting the old, dried roots at the base of the tuber should be pared away with a thin bladed knife. If this is not done they frequently decay and the diseased condition will be communicated to the tuber. Care must be taken to procure fresh roots each season, as at the north the plant blooms but once, therefore planting old roots will be sure to lead to disappointment. The plant is very tender, and on the approach of frosty weather it will be necessary to cover it at night or to pot it and remove to a place out of the reach of frost. Some persons prefer to keep their plants in pots throughout the season, sinking them in the ground during the summer. If this is done it is an easy matter to remove them to a place of safety when cold nights come. They will bloom for six weeks or more.

Praise for the Corner.

"Would you please send me the auto massage belt for reducing the abdomen? I shall pay the postage on it and be very glad to get it, for I have tried many things. Surely the Helping Hand is a great blessing, and you say of a truth, 'Make me a blessing to some one today,' for every day it is a help to some one.

"MARY G. H."

Your request for a belt was answered awhile ago. I wish fervently that I could give you a different reply.

I select your letter from the ten I spoke of that I may thank you for the refreshing words you speak of our Corner. We strive without ceasing to make it worthy of the name you bestow—a blessing and a strong staff to him that is weary.

The shorthand book was given away before your letter came, or I should not be writing this. You would have heard of it by mail if it were still in our gift.

You have had this intelligence by post. I am writing now in the hope that another book may be waiting somewhere for you.

Lillian Russell's Beauty Secrets.

The Importance of Health.

BY LILLIAN RUSSELL.

[Copyright: 1912: By Lillian Russell.]

NO beauty of mind or body, no happiness or even ordinary comfort can be enjoyed without health. Women and men alike neglect their greatest asset through ignorance, not knowing how to breathe properly, exercise properly, or eat properly.

There is no reason why age should lessen the enjoyment of life. The persons who allow themselves to sink into feebleness and apathy merely because of the passing years have some mental or spiritual weakness in them which they have not the will to overcome.

The woman who suffers her beauty and freshness to wane and fade on account of what she or her friends call age shows that she is devoid of spiritual control. Obstinacy and selfishness have murdered more human beings than any other form of plague. Every man and every woman must give of his and her best. It is the duty of every man and woman to rest and recuperate from the strenuous life they lead.

Dr. George J. Gladman of New York says: "Dietetic ignorance and carelessness, unsuitable environment, and unhealthy social customs are directly responsible for the alarming increase of physical wrecks. The careless, intemperate ingestion of food, the inability to secure its oxidation through lack of proper exercise in the open air have contributed their share to a glut of unassimilable excess within the body, causing disturbances or stagnation, which imposes a deficient supply to the secretory organs so that they cannot perform their functions properly, and also imposes a serious and unnecessary burden upon that sanctuary of vitality, the heart."

Treat a sick man or woman with methods that would keep a well person strong and vigorous—with a regulated diet, fresh air, pure water, light, exercise, and comfortable surroundings—and you will prevent diseases of all kinds.

Few women will take the time to think out this prevention proposition, and yet how necessary it is, not only to them but to the future generations. If every woman, married or single, would take from four to six weeks every year of her life, from the time she reaches the age of 25, and go to a "health hotel," where scientific medical men, all experts in their own different specialties, are in attendance, where there is no place for quacks or charlatans, where pure air, pure water, proper exercise, electric treatments for different ailments may be administered, where the food is prepared under hygienic rules, for obesity or the opposite, according to the cases, where proper rest and relaxation are given as regularly as the meals, where baths are given to suit the requirements of the patient, and even music and entertainment is furnished, there would never be an old woman.

Remember: Self-preservation is the first law of beauty and youth.

Laura Jean Libbey's Comment and Advice.

BY LAURA JEAN LIBBEY.

She's 18—He's 49.

"Dear Miss Libbey: You have sometimes advised against the marriage of persons of much disparity of age. I am only 18 and go with girls of my own age, but in our regular set there are some men ranging from 30 to 50. One bachelor of 49 has shown me much attention and is kind and affectionate and I care for him much. I believe he intends to propose and I see no reason why I should not accept at once. He does not seem old to me. My parents approve of him and he is of good family and wealthy. Should I discourage him or require him to wait? If you disapprove of him, won't you please give me some definite reasons that would reconcile me to giving him up?

PERPLEXED."

I do not approve of couples marrying where there is such great difference in age. It turns out all right sometimes, but in the majority of cases such marriages end in the divorce court.

* *

Met at Masquerade.

"Dear Miss Libbey: Last week, while attending a masquerade given by my dad's society, I became acquainted with a dear young lady about one year my junior. We were together the greater part of the evening, as we seemed to enjoy each other's company. We agreed to meet at the same hall one week later at another masquerade. She is 18, good looking and a good dancer. I am 19 and also a fairly good dancer. I would like to find out if it makes any difference that I was not introduced to her, or isn't this necessary at a masquerade?

DAVID."

No; it would have been better for you to have been introduced to her, but as you probably know who she is and some of her friends I think you are safe in taking her into your confidence.

* *

Is She Too Affectionate?

"Dear Miss Libbey: I am a young married woman, neat in appearance. What I wish to ask is this: Can a woman be so affectionate with her husband as to spoil him or have him tire of her? I have been told by many people not to be too affectionate. Sometimes I feel I am too affectionate with my husband. We get along nicely, but if what I have heard should be true it would be sad.

WONDERING."

No, I don't think there is any danger that you can spoil your husband with too much affection. The only thing to remember is that there is a time for all things. A man rarely appreciates kisses when he is hungry or in a hurry.

* *

Shall She Give Him Up?

"Dear Miss Libbey: I am 18 and deeply in love with a young man of 21. We have gone with each other for almost three years and during that time he has certainly been very attentive. Although he has never spoken of his love for me, still his actions speak it. In fact, he has told me he had no serious intentions. He is jealous and never wants me to go with any one else. Shall I give him up and go to another, who says he loves me?

ROSALIND."

If you don't care for the fellow you might as well not waste your time going about with him.

A Studebaker Automobiles

FLANDERS "20" — Two Models — EMF "30"

Do You Want Your Money's Worth?

Flanders "20" Touring Car, $800

The next time an automobile salesman tries to sell you a car at a discount, tell him that the old "something for nothing" story can't fool you.

The best automobiles in the world are sold for their list price, not a penny less. They are worth it. But the lame ducks, the second rates, the nondescript and assembled automobiles are in the public market looking for the highest bidder. Look out they don't get you. If gold-brick cars are not worth their list price, how much are they worth? Nobody knows. Cut price deals are frauds.

But if you want a car of one price to all and worth every cent of it, get either a Studebaker E-M-F "30," $1100, or Flanders "20," $800. You can trust them. You get all that you pay for and that is more than you get with any other car at near their price. Studebaker guarantees them. That's the big reason. No matter what price temptation falls in your way, Studebaker E-M-F "30" and Flanders "20" cars are far bigger bargains, because in years of good service and satisfaction, they pay big returns.

We can prove it—Send for our new catalogue

'FRIEND' DIVORCE FOR W. J. ENGLISH

Former Chicago Official and Lawyer Agrees to Decree Granted on Coast.

WIFE BRINGS THE SUIT.

Couple Parted After Arrival in Paris During Long Tour of European Nations.

William J. English, former Chicago election commissioner and prominent attorney for many years, is a party to an "amicable" divorce in San Francisco.

His wife, formerly Miss Clara Sutro, daughter of the late Adolph Sutro, brought the action. Mr. English was in the western coast city recently, and it was thought that the agreement by which the separation was brought about was consummated at that time. Desertion was understood to be the technical basis agreed upon.

The separation did not come as a surprise to Chicago friends of the couple, as it was known they had separated nearly three years ago. Mr. English has spent a great deal of his time abroad recently and is said to be out of the city now.

Once Dunne's Partner.

His residence is at 1109 East Sixty-fifth street and he now has offices in the Ashland block. At one time he was in partnership with former Mayor Dunne. At different times he has been attorney for the Hibernian bank, the Catholic bishop of Chicago, the Chicago City Railway company, and the Peoples Gas Light and Coke company. He served several terms as a member of the school board beginning in 1874. He is a former president of the Chicago Bar association and a member of the Chicago Athletic association.

He married Miss Sutro at Los Angeles in 1898. At that time he was 58 years old and his bride was several years his junior. The wedding was one of the most brilliant social events of the year in Los Angeles and the Chicago man took his bride on an extended trip through Europe.

Agree to Disagree.

In May of 1899 they were in Paris, and it was there, according to Mrs. English's testimony, they agreed to disagree, although it was not until July 15, 1900, that they finally separated. Mrs. English then returned to Switzerland, where she since has spent a great deal of her time, although maintaining a legal residence in San Francisco.

The only witnesses in the divorce case were Mrs. English and her brother, Charles Walter Sutro, who corroborated her statement that she and her husband had been separated for more than a year past. The charge of failure to support was said to have been brought into the case merely in conformity with legal procedure as it was reported all property claims had been settled out of court. No motion for alimony was made during the proceedings.

BOY THIEF DEFIES POLICE: WOMAN INDUCES CONFESSION.

Motherly Talk by Mrs. M. D. Kelso, Victim of Robbery, Causes Youth to Give Up Pocketbook.

A motherly talk by Mrs. May Donnally Kelso yesterday broke the spirit of Benjamin Jendricks, 17 years old, and with tears streaming down his face he admitted stealing a pocketbook from her studio in the Auditorium building.

For two hours the boy had defied detectives and although he was thoroughly searched twice he kept the pocketbook secreted on his person.

Mrs. Kelso was behind a screen in her studio washing her hands. She looked out and saw Jendricks walking toward the door. He said he was looking for a man. She noticed her handbag on the piano. By the time she had opened the bag and confirmed her suspicion Jendricks was on his way down the stairs.

She called the elevator boy and he caught him at the bottom of the stairs. The boy lives at 1718 South Wood street.

PUT OUT BIG FIRE WITH DIRT

Firemen Prevent Disastrous Explosion at Varnish Works.

OIL STORES NEAR FLAMES.

Engine Company Men Dig Earth from a Nearby Lawn.

Firemen of engine company No. 9 put out a big fire yesterday with dirt. They dropped axes, chemicals, and hose and set to work with shovels, saving the whole plant of the Standard Varnish company, 2620 Armour avenue. By preventing the explosion of a 200 gallon turpentine tank they probably saved adjoining property. Without the shovels and the lawn from which earth was dug heavy loss would have been certain.

The fire started from an explosion in one of the oil boiling rooms and spread rapidly. A minute after the report was heard the fifteen girl employés sprinted into the street uninjured. The force of 100 men or more stayed in an attempt to stop the fire without assistance. When the firemen came the employés were sent to draw off the oil in adjoining rooms and prevent further explosions.

The company's building is a two story brick structure extending nearly half a block and almost a full block deep. The explosion took place in the west end of the second floor, and before the engine companies could arrive the blaze was shooting from the roof.

Chemicals had no effect on the burning oil, and water made matters worse. There was real alarm when the blaze began creeping slowly toward the big turpentine tank, and leaving a small squad to stop the spread in other directions most of the firemen were armed with shovels and pointed toward the lawn. In five minutes the edges of the tank were banked with earth and the trail of flame from the main fire buried.

More of the lawn was torn away and tons of earth heaped on the fire until it was extinguished. Loss is estimated at $4,000.

"'Tis a ditch digger I should be," said Pipeman McGuire of company 9.

CUBS LAND GAME BY HARD HITTING

Fourteen Bingles for Twenty Sacks Beat Boston Braves by 9 to 4 Score.

ARCHER GETS 4 SWATS.

Lavender Hurls Steady Ball, Keeping Clouts Scattered Except in Ninth.

BY SAM WELLER.

An abundance of base hits gave the Cubs an easy victory over the Boston braves yesterday at the west side park, the score being 9 to 4. There was plenty of fresh air and lots of beautiful sunshine, but otherwise not much to entertain the crowd. Boston looked too much like the Boston club of old to arouse enthusiasm. The pepper shown on the previous day was lacking.

In the first round the Cubs whaled home three runs and then galloped the rest of the route, adding six more at various intervals. It was the eighth inning before the Braves got a man home. They pushed one over in that inning and wound up with three in the ninth, but that didn't even put them close enough to make it look like a battle.

It was thrilling to see Jimmy Archer bang out four base hits in four times at bat. Also it caused some cheering and applause when Johnny Evers lined a triple, followed by another by Eddie Lennox. Artie Hofman also exhibited in fine style, scoring three runs by some fancy batting and speedy base running. It also was comforting to see Young Jimmy Lavender handle himself so well on the slab.

Lavender Pitches Steadily.

Lavender worked the entire game for Chicago, and although his twirling wasn't what one could call brilliant, it was so steady and precise that he won the admiration of the onlookers. He gave nine base hits all told, but no one scored until the tail end of the contest, when the Cubs were so far ahead that it was not necessary to use all of one's strength in pitching to the enemy.

The young pitcher might have had some trouble early in the game had not his support been sparkling in at least two instances. Once in the first and again in the third Tinker, Evers, and Heine Zim executed double plays when two men were on and only one out. This extricated the boy pitcher from two bad holes.

Johnny Kling picked Hub Perdue to pitch. Hub has been something of a hero because of his pitching prowess down east so far this spring, but he couldn't fool the Chicago fellows at all, and after laboring in vain desperation for five rounds he was allowed to go to his shower bath and another pitcher sent to the mound.

The Cubs had lanyard Hub for ten base hits and scored seven runs while his mates hadn't been able to get a man as far as third base on them. Apparently thought it was no place for him. Just what he had to fool the eastern clubs in the early games is hard to imagine, but he certainly must have had more than he had yesterday.

McTigue Replaces Perdue.

When he retired the tall and lanky southpaw, McTigue, took the task of hurling and the Cubs batted in two more runs and turned some championship base running during his session. Johnny Kling retired from the battle as if in disgust when Hub Perdue failed to accomplish anything, and his young understudy, Gowdy, wound up the contest behind the bat.

All told the Cubs made fourteen safe hits for a total of twenty bases, so it is no great wonder that they put nine men over the home plate. Their fielding, too, was splendid and the only bobble was charged to Archer when he let go a rather bad peg in trying to nail a runner at second base. Hofman and Schulte had some lively scampering to do in the outfield and both pulled down six flies, four of which he had to extend himself in order to capture.

Sheckard opened the first with a base on balls and Schulte raised his fly to right field that Sweasey captured after such a chase. Tinker tapped out to the pitcher, but Hofman drove the ball over Kirke's head for two bags, scoring Sheckard. Heine Zim was dealt on Spratt's hobble, then Evers pulled a single to right, scoring Hofman and sending Heine to third. Lennox drove to left for one base, scoring Heine and sending Evers to third, but he, himself, was pegged out trying to make second base.

There was no more counting until the fourth, when Archer singled after one was dead. Lavender fanned, but Sheckard drove one over Campbell's head for two bags and Archer scored. Schulte grounded out, retiring the side.

Cubs Score Three in Fifth.

In the fifth the Cubs held their principal batting bee, putting three runs with five out. Hofman singled to center and went to second on Zim's out. Evers followed with a triple to right center, scoring Artie; then Johnny trotted home when Lennox duplicated his triple. Archer made his third single and Lennox scored.

McTigue began pitching in the sixth and fanned Sheckard, but Schulte walked. Tinker got a single on a pop fly back of second that three Braves tried to catch, all giving up when it looked as if there would be a collision. This put Schulte on second. Hofman forced Tinker at second, Schulte taking third; then he and Artie executed a neat double steal, Frank scoring. Zim followed with a stinging single to second. This scored Hofman and Evers' fly to deep right closed the round.

In the eighth, with one out, Vince Campbell tripled over Hofman's head and scored on Miller's long sacrifice fly. Kirke got a single, but died on first when Devlin raised to Schulte.

One was out in the ninth when McDonald singled and stole second. Gowdy walked and Hauser, batting for McTigue, tripled to left center, scoring both McDonald and Gowdy. Sweasey walked and Campbell forced him at second, Hauser scoring. Campbell stole second and took third on Archer's bad peg, but the game ended when Hofman captured Miller's fly. Score:

SAM WELLERISMS.

The Cubs passed the .500 mark yesterday for the first time this year.

A bit more action in lining up between innings would help the west side games materially. Several times yesterday there was time lost while the change was being made.

In the seventh, when Archer was batting, he landed one into the upper grand stand seats and knocked a derby hat down into the brow beneath. The contents of the hat were not injured.

Vince Campbell had three hits, a triple and two singles, and drew one base on balls in his five trips to the plate. Both his singles were infield hits that he beat out.

Frank Schulte's overdue home run was expected to arrive yesterday when Hub Perdue was announced as the pitcher, but Frank couldn't get a hold on one. He drew two passes however, to make up for the failure. Last season Schulte made two home runs off Perdue in one series.

Manager Chance announced yesterday that he had bought Jerry Downs from Brooklyn and expects him to report at once. Jerry is a capable infielder and appeared against the Cubs in 1907 and '08 when they fought Detroit for the world's championship.

GREEN SOX OPEN HERE TODAY; AUTO PARADE TO BALL PARK.

Cleveland to Meet Chicago in First U. S. League Game—Notables Plan to Attend the Battle.

BY HANDY ANDY.

Chicago's United States league team will open its home season at Gunther park today, with Jack O'Connor's Clevelands as opponents. The opening will be given a big league aspect by an automobile parade leaving the Hotel Sherman at noon. Mayor Harrison is scheduled to toss out the first ball, and Edward F. Dunne, candidate for governor, has promised to assist the mayor.

McGuire and McDonough probably will be the battery for the locals in their first appearance on the home lot, and O'Connor states that he intends to use Moyer and Green. Moyer was with Washington for a short time. He trimmed the Nelsens when Chicago visited Cleveland.

Manager Bert Keeley of the local team is fairly well satisfied with the showing his men have made thus far, despite the fact that they have won one game and dropped three.

Hal Chase in Sanitarium.

New York, May 7.—A statement made public here regarding the condition of Hal Chase, first baseman of the New York Americans, shows that he is in a sanitarium in this city being treated for a serious form of stomach trouble. Hopes are expressed, however, that he will recover in a short time and rejoin the team.

Purdue, 6; Indiana, 0.

Bloomington, Ind., May 7.—[Special.]—Indiana lost to Purdue today, 6 to 0, in one of the hardest fought games of the season. Neither side scored until the sixth inning, when the Boilermakers negotiated one run. In the seventh they batted their other runs by timely hits after Cameron, the Indiana twirler, had walked two men.

Ragged Fielding, Combined with Good Hitting, Aids Visitors.

Cincinnati, O., May 7.—President Taft saw Philadelphia defeat Cincinnati today, 8 to 5. It was an uphill battle for the locals and the president applauded their every effort. Cincinnati played a ragged fielding game and this combined with opportune hitting by the visitors allowed Philadelphia to carry off a victory. Score:

CHICAGO TAKES CUE HONORS.

Wins National Three Cushion Title from Kansas City by Landing the Final Match, 50 to 41.

Chicago won the three cushion championship of the National Billiard league, Stanley Kandul winning the deciding game from J. T. Backus of Kansas City, 50 to 41, in 73 innings at Mussey's rooms last night. This victory gave Chicago four wins in the extra series to decide the tie in the regular schedule. Kansas City won one game on its home tables and lost both the games played in Chicago. Kandul had a high run of 5 and Backus one of 4. Kandul made a fine finish, scoring 9 points in his last five innings.

Walter Lassben, western champion, defeated Jonathan T. Backus of Kansas City 50 to 46 in the opening game of the series here at Mussey's rooms for the three cushion championship of the National Billiard league. The victory gave Chicago three of the four games played, as the locals won two of the three played last week at Kansas City.

BRUCK'S BOWLERS TO GET $205

State Championship Also Carries with It Five Gold Medals for the Winning Quintet.

The official standing in the five men event of the Illinois Bowling association tournament was issued last night, showing Bruck's league as the 1912 champions of the state with a mark of 3,684, one of the lowest marks which has won the event in recent years. Three hundred and ninety-three clubs went against the records. The team wins $205 for first prize and five gold medals.

J. Kain and W. Christianson of the Wensel teams led the contestants in the doubles yesterday with a total of 1,165. M. Brueckner and A. Ender of the Hoyler Enveloper were second with 1,146. Four players went the double century route in the singles, E. La Plant and E. Mackin leading, each getting 614. Scores:

LORD'S HOME RUN WINS FOR SOX, 1-0

Terrific Smash Brings Victory in Abbreviated Battle at Washington.

'GRIF' PLAYS POOR HUNCH.

Insists on Game, Which Ends in Fifth After Cals Get Run; Lange Holds Senators.

BY I. E. SANBORN.

Washington, D. C., May 7.—[Special.]—Foxy Clark Griffith tried to put one over on Jimmy Callahan, his former side partner, today by playing a game of baseball under conditions unfit for publication, but the local weather bureau balked Griff by compelling a cessation of hostilities at the end of five innings, with the score 1 to 0 in favor of the White Sox.

Harry Lord won the game by a home run drive over the right field wall in the fourth inning, the first time that feat has been performed this season. Bill Lange did the rest, for he shut out the Senators in spite of all the wetness which was sent to dilute the mixture of whitewash he had brewed for Griff's men.

There never would have been a chance to start today's game if Manager Griffith had not thought he could slip over a victory with his team going at a fast clip and as sassy as a bunch of grammar school kids out on a lark. The heavy rains of last night, which flooded out of the neighborhood farm country all recently planted crops, simply soaked Luna park to saturation, but the sun baked diamond was fairly hard at noon time. So it was decided to play.

Griffith Insists on Game.

Just as the home team was finishing its practice another shower drove them to shelter and converted the field into a slippery expanse of mud and turf. But Griffith had a hunch his team could win under any conditions, so he commanded the umpires to start the game. It was barely drizzling at the time, but the whole horizon was choked with clouds that were as full of rain as an alley cat of fleas.

Lange and Groom were asked to cope with the conditions, and it looked a time as if Groom was going to have all the luck. He escaped from a bad spot in the second when nothing but luck could save him. Bodie, first up, was hit in the ribs, and Collins followed with a single to left, failed to deliver the needed bunters in the game, but failed to deliver the needed sacrifice today. After two ineffectual efforts Rollie pulled a hard one to Foster and was doubled up along with Collins. Bodie reached third, but Weaver grounded out.

The luck switched in the local second, for Schaefer opened that with a walk, only to be nailed at second in a hit and run play which miscued. Flynn then singled and made second on Knight's out, but Lange whiffed McBride.

Lord Gets Home Run.

Lord opened the fourth with a terrific smash over the right field barrier into an open lot outside, and that was the swat which brought victory to the White Sox banner. After the captain had trotted around the circuit through the raindrops the next three Sox were retired in order.

Then fortune turned her face toward Washington. Foster worked Lange for a pass to start the home half of the fourth. Milan poked a single into left, Schaefer laid down an easy bunt and just as Lange reached he slipped on the sloppy turf and fell. Everybody was safe, the bases full, and nobody out. One run would tie and two would win, for the rain was getting closer.

Lange never pitched harder or more brilliantly than he did in that corner. He struck out the slugger, Flynn, who has been carving his name on the outfield fences here, then let Knight down with a pop foul to Zeider. Bill had two strikes on McBride for the third out when Milan took a long lead off second, hoping to pull a throw on which Foster could score. He pulled the throw all right, but Buck Weaver had sneaked in behind him so that it was a short throw instead of a long one, and the two Senators were trapped on third base. Foster tried to get out of the trap by starting for home, but Weaver relayed the ball to Block in time to get him and the side was out.

Real Rain in Fifth Inning.

With one down in the Sox fifth, Weaver lived on a grounder which McBride failed to dig out of the mud. Block forced Buck at second, and Lange struck out. By that time it was raining real rain. Umpire Dineen made the athletes hustle and the Sox worked faster than that. McBride flied to Bodie, Henry grounded out by way of Rath, and the bleacherites began to rush to shelter, wet to the skin already. But Dineen would not stop the game at that stage. He made Groom come to bat and Lange made him fly out to Bodie.

Then with a legal game completed, Dineen called time. At the end of the necessary period of waiting there was no more chance to play baseball than there is for the stockyards district to go dry. And Foxy Grif had been beaten at his own game. Score:

WHEAT ACREAGE LOSS IS RECORD

May Federal Report Shows 6,000,000 Acres Abandoned in Soft Wheat States.

SEES ONLY HALF A CROP.

Hard Winter Wheat States More Favorable; General Condition Set at 79.7.

Sensational losses in acreage in all the big soft winter wheat states were shown in the May government report issued yesterday. The report shows a loss of 6,469,000 acres, making the acreage left to harvest 25,744,000 acres, compared to 32,213,000 acres sown last fall and 29,162,000 acres harvested in 1911. The loss in acreage was 20.1 per cent, the largest loss on record.

The big losses were in the states of Ohio, Illinois, Indiana, Michigan, and Missouri. Ohio condition was placed at 53; Indiana, 52; Illinois, 52; Missouri, 72; and Michigan, 64. The great bulk of the soft winter wheat, or red winter as it is known, is raised in the five states mentioned. In nearly all these states the abandoned acreage is enormous. In Illinois there was 53.5 per cent abandoned; in Indiana, 46.5 per cent; in Ohio, 45.2 per cent; in Missouri, 23.2 per cent; and in Michigan 26 per cent. Taking both the acreage lost and the condition, the crop in these five states promises to be about 70,000,000 bu, compared to 166,000,000 bu a year ago.

Winter Wheat Crop Low.

The total crop of winter wheat indicated by the figures of condition and acreage is 371,000,000 bu, compared to an April promise of 464,000,000 bu and a final yield last year of 464,000,000 bu. The condition of winter wheat, taking the whole country, was 79.7, or several points higher than expected. A year ago the condition was 86.1, and the average yield per bu was placed at 14.4 bu. The average yield per acre was a little more than expected.

The report was a disappointment to the bulls in the matter of condition, but the figures given of the abandoned acreage were about in line with expectations. Recent state reports have been much more bullish than the government figures.

WAITING MARKET IN WHEAT.

On account of the government report coming out just at the close of the market, wheat traders were in a waiting mood all day and there was but little feature to the trade. Early there was a little heavier tone, but shorts covered quite freely in the last hour, and prices at the finish were a shade lower to ½c up. The May was strong and closed at the top prices of the crop, $1.18. The cash demand was good and there was not much May pressing on the market.

Liverpool did not respond to the Friday's advance on this side, closing ¼@¾c off. The more favorable Indian reports with liberal cargo offerings were bear factors abroad. Paris was strong and ¼@1c higher, Berlin ½c off, Antwerp ½c off, and Budapest ¾c lower. The European visible showed a fair increase for the week.

The cash trade continues excellent and there were sales of 130,000 bu. Prices for cash wheat were firm relatively here and at outside markets. Minneapolis wheat stocks decreased 550,000 bu for three days. Mills were said to have a good deal of wheat from start at Minneapolis the last few days.

Stronger Tone in Corn.

There was a stronger tone displayed in corn. The cash market was steady and there was less selling pressure, while commission houses took a lot of corn off the market. Wagner, Bartlett-Frazier, Rea-Jenks, Clement-Curtis, and local shorts were good buyers. Final quotations were ¼@¾c higher. Weather conditions were unfavorable and the government report showing only 52.8 per cent of spring plowing done, against 80.3 per cent last year was confirming private advices. Another bull factor as confirming private advices. Another bull influence was the complaints in regard to the poor germinating quality of seed corn. Receipts here were 385 cars, with 206 cars the estimate for today. Primary receipts were 718,000 bu, against 731,000 bu a year ago. Cash prices were steady and shipping sales were 135,000 bu. Cables were ¼d off.

Light Trade in Products.

Provisions were steady early, and did not fluctuate sharply at any time, although there was a stronger undertone late in the day. Receipts of hogs were 15,000, with 28,000 the estimate for today. Western receipts were 75,600, against 83,900 a year ago. The cash demand was moderate.

Rye Steady at Advance.

Rye was supported on a steady basis, with No. 2 selling at 95c. No. 3 closed at 91@93c and No. 4 at 86@90c nominal. Receipts were estimated at 7 cars.

Barley was firm. Malting closed at $1.00@1.32; feeding, 90@96c; feed, 79@80c; screenings, 30@75c.

Receipts, 9 cars.

Timothy seed was higher at $7.50 bid for October and $8.00@12.00 for cash lots. Clover seed held steady at $16.00@21.50 for cash lots.

Duluth flax closed 1@2c higher, with cash on track $2.19½; May, $2.18½; July, $2.13½. Receipts were 21 cars. Minneapolis flax was 2c higher, with cash on track $2.18½. Receipts, 29 cars.

IN THE PRODUCE MARKETS.

Egg prices at Chicago yesterday were firm to a shade higher on the best grades, the strength being due to competition between speculators who were adding to their holdings in cold storage. The latter, according to the warehousemen's report, were 897,000 cases on May 1, against 4,443 cases on April 1 and 1,388,000 cases a year ago.

HEISEN BUILDING CHANGES HANDS

Malcolm G. Bruce, Son-in-Law of Builder, Buys $2,600,000 Downtown Property.

TAILORS MAKE BIG LEASE.

Alfred Decker and Cohn Take Proposed 18 Story Structure for Fifteen Years.

Charles C. Heisen has sold the newly completed Heisen building at the southwest corner of Dearborn and Harrison streets. The grantee is Malcolm G. Bruce of Richmond, Va., a son-in-law of Mr. Heisen.

The transfer covers the twenty-two story and double basement steel construction building which has a frontage of 300 feet on Dearborn and Federal streets and 62 feet on Harrison street. The conveyance also covers the fee simple in 175 feet owned by Mr. Heisen and the leasehold interest in 125 feet held by Mr. Heisen under a long term lease.

The consideration is withheld, but it is stated that a conservative estimate of the value of the ground held in fee simple and that under long term lease and the building is $2,600,000. It is said $3,250,000 was paid for the holding.

Bond Issue Is Made.

In connection with the transfer, Greenebaum Sons' Bank and Trust company have underwritten a serial bond issue of $1,250,000, bearing 6 per cent interest, the bonds maturing in from two to ten years. The loan runs to Mr. Bruce, who is stated to be the owner of other valuable property in the downtown district.

About 60 per cent of the space in the building is now rented and occupied. The gross annual income of the building is estimated at $410,000, and the net income at $250,000.

In another interesting transaction in downtown property Stanley Field and Arthur D. Jones have leased for fifteen years to Alfred Decker & Cohn, tailors, the thirteen story steel construction fireproof sprinkled building to be erected at the northwest corner of Franklin and Congress streets. The lot fronts 55 feet on Franklin and Market streets and 201 feet on Congress, and was recently purchased by Mr. Field and Mr. Jones from Mrs. Allen F. Morse of New York for $607,500.

The lease provides for an annual rent of 5 per cent on a value of $380,000 for the ground, or $16,500 net a year, and 7 per cent on the cost of the building, which is estimated at $425,000, or $29,750 a year.

Tunnel Company Adds to Holdings.

In connection with the reorganization of the bankrupt Illinois Tunnel company, the Chicago Tunnel company—the new corporation—has acquired from Charles B. Morrison, special master in chancery, and others, the property in North Water street, 370 feet, more or less, by 124 feet, 6 inches, 37 feet, and other property, for $100,000 and other valuable consideration.

A special meeting of the Chicago real estate board will be held this afternoon at 2 o'clock to consider proposed amendments to the laws with reference to fees for valuations.

In connection with the issue of the recorder's office before the Cook County Real Estate board at the Hotel La Salle during the day, John C. Cannon, Republican candidate for recorder, said he had no specific recommendations or criticisms to make.

"The candidate who indulges in sweeping criticisms and promises of reform often finds our when elected that he knew nothing about the actual conditions and problems to be met," said Mr. Cannon.

STEEL POUNDED DOWN TO 64 1-8

Selling of Stock on New York Exchange Originates with the Bear Faction.

OTHER ISSUES STEADY.

Deals Fall Far Below Those of Monday; Rail Shares More than Hold Their Own.

New York, May 7.—Interest in the stock market continued to center largely around United States Steel. That stock was again subjected to severe pressure, declining to 64⅛ in the middle of the day on large transactions.

Much of the selling of Steel originated with the bear faction, which has openly shown its attitude with respect to that stock since the publication of the unfavorable quarterly report a week ago.

Further ammunition seems to have been furnished by the institution of the hearing against the corporation in connection with the suit for dissolution by the federal government. Thus far the testimony has been of a perfunctory character, aside from throwing some light on the matter of former "pools."

Market Steady to Strong.

The rest of the market ranged from steady to strong, with dealings far below those of yesterday. Reading, Union Pacific, Lehigh Valley, and New York Central among the standard railway shares more than held their own after the opening, which was weak all around.

Some of the active industrials, including American Can and American Smelting, gave an equally good account of themselves, but the session, in the main was dull and uninteresting. The financial community showed no disposition to pay more than passing attention to the latest political developments.

London Reverses Position.

London reversed its position of yesterday in this market, buying round lots of Steel and Amalgamated Copper. Apropos of the coppers, these shares were under a cloud of depression in connection with the April report of the copper producers, to come out tomorrow, and which is expected to show an increase of production.

Abundant money weakened discounts at the British metropolis, thereby reviving hopes of a reduction in the bank rate on Thursday.

FROTH IN THE CHICAGO MARKET.

Western observers of the New York market have been impressed with what, it appears, may develop into a bull movement of dangerous talk on the market mentions of G. Reid as one of the sponsors for the advance. It is not doubted that Mr. Reid has associated with him. Wall street people of resources. But those who have watched the course of American Can stocks, which have been regarded as indicative of the character of the market trend, remember that the leading factor in the rise in that stock not long ago was the cashier of a small bank in Richmond, Ind. Such fortune as he is credited with having came through combinations or trusts in which watered stocks figured largely. Money standing of that sort is not built on a substantial career but is accidental.

When American Can common stock, selling at 41, is accepted as a market guide, there is room for skepticism as to the stability of the market. The stock has not paid a dividend and is not able to pay one. The items amounts to $41,238,300. There is ahead of it an issue of $41,233,800 7 per cent cumulative preferred stock, on which only 5 per cent is being paid. The unpaid dividend on this issue amounts to about 35 per cent. So a price of 41 for a stock that pays nothing and has five effervescent character of the general price movement.

CHAS·A·STEVENS & BROS·

WOMEN'S, MISSES' AND CHILDREN'S OUTFITTERS
17 to 25 North State Street, Through to Wabash Avenue

Tomorrow we will place on sale an extraordinary purchase of Fine Coats, the

Surplus Stock and Sample Coats and Wraps

Of one of the leading American coat makers, which we secured at a very low price

Although we are continually adding to our stocks high class sample garments, marked at special prices, it is our policy never to mention them in our advertisements unless we have something very unusual to offer, and when we do the public have learned from experience to expect a sale that is worth while.

This announcement therefore will be of special interest to every woman who has not yet purchased her summer coat or wrap, and who would like to procure one of the greatest bargains of the season.

They are the very latest spring and summer styles in high class evening, afternoon and street coats and wraps in meteor, charmeuse, satin, brocades, mistral, ratine, etamine and novelty cloths.

At $25, $30, $35, $40 and $50

We offer the most wonderful values in Coats of every description, in all the fashionable materials and colors; also sample Coats at $60, $75 and up to $175.

At $20, $25, $27.50, $30 and $35 a grand showing of etamine and mistral cloth Coats, in navy, black, tan and white, with colored satin linings.

Serge Coats in white, black, navy, tan, at $15, $16.50, $18.50, $20 and $25.

Tailored Satin Coats—very special values at $25, $27.50 and $30.

Motor and Steamer Coats in wide wale serges and mixtures and fancy novelty imported materials from $15 to $100.

For Steamer Wear—a special Inverness model, very special at $55.

Norfolk Jackets—all the season's latest models in stripes and plain and fancy effects, from $7.50 to $50.

Silk Coatees—in all colors, to be worn with the one piece gowns from $15 to $75.

A feature of this sale will be the great showing of White Coats in both styles and materials at all prices.

Very Special at $20

Summer Slip-On Wraps of Imported Etamine, Unlined

It is quite unusual to be able to buy such stylish, becoming wraps as these at this low price. The value is certainly here. They are made of imported etamine in black, gray, brown and navy blue with collars and cuffs of novelty silk.

Porch Wraps Special at $15. These are the smart satin wraps with fancy linings in a variety of colored stripe satin now so much in vogue.

Special Offering of 80 Model Suits

In this collection we offer 80 Tailor Made Suits, models made for us by several well known makers who adapt and copy the French styles. If bought under the regular conditions these suits would be priced from $85 to $125.00. These suits will be priced at $50.00, $55.00 and $60.00.

No. 1—$10.75 No. 2—$22.50

White Serge Suits—the very latest models in imported serge, very special at $25.00, $30.00, $35.00.

Silk Dresses—we have a large assortment of voile dresses trimmed with messaline and taffeta; some with the heavy lace collars, others finished with shadow lace collars. In this assortment of over 200 dresses we show a representation of the most becoming models used in our display this season. We have not only copied the styles, but also the materials. These are priced at $25.00, $30.00 and $35.00 and are great values.

Tailor Made Suits—at $25.00, $30.00 and $35.00, in the fashionable woolens and in the very newest summer styles. These suits were made special for us, and are exceptional at the prices.

Four Most Attractive Little Summer Dresses Ever Produced at the Price

No. 1—As illustrated, comes in white linen bound on the edges with white and colored striped pique, designed to simulate a coat. Black taffeta tie and patent leather belt. Priced one-half regular value, at $10.75.

No. 2—Charming frock of imported striped voile, in rose, blue, tan or green combined with white. It is trimmed in taffeta matching the colored stripe, and the white collar and cuffs are hand embroidered in the same color. Price, $22.50.

No. 3—Illustrating a Norfolk dress made of real Irish linen, light weight and rough weave in pink, tan, blue and brown. The skirt is joined to the waist to give a Norfolk effect. With linen or leather belt. Price, $13.50.

No. 4—In the fourth model is illustrated one of the most popular designs shown in Paris. It is made of plain linen in blue, white, pink or lavender, and has dotted mull deep collar running below the waist line, which is shirred in back. $25.00.

No. 3—$13.50 No. 4—$25.00
